All classes of people testified their deep sense of refief from the anxieties of a long and painful suspense by joining their beloved Queen in a public thanksgiving, which proved in vastness of attendance and unanimity of feeling the grandest and unanimity of feeling the grandest and most impressive or emoby ever witnessed in the British Capital. I invite you to follow the good example on the 15th day of this month. It was thought advisable to defer the solemnties until after the meeting of Parliament, and I feel assured that the members of the two Houses, as well as all Her Majesty's faithful subjects throughout the Dominion will be anxious to unite in celebrating the occasion with all becoming observance and loval alacrity. to a later season than usual upon considerations of Imperial as well as Colonial interest, and at the instance of Her Majesty's The young Province of Manitoba was last September threatened with an invasion of lawless persons from the United States. Prompt measures for resistance were adopted by the local authorities and attended with the best results. In order to re assure the people of the Province and to prevent a ace of the outrage, I ordered a force of 200 militiamen to be sent to Fort Garry. Notwithstanding inclement season of the year the troops surmounted the difficulties of themarch with energy and success, thus proving not only their own discipline and sendurance but also the value of the route. endurance but also the value of the route through our own territory. The accounts of the expenditure occasioned by this expedition will be laid before you, and you will be fequested to pass a bill to indemnify the government.
