Captain Thurston Macomber, of Fair-haven, Mass., who commanded the bark Osprey, of New Bedford, from 1851 to hear it called "ammon" therefore, in a aphere, I might also remark, is, to my mind, robbed of half its beauty, when pronounced "spear." Neither Johnson nor Walker (improved of course by Todd), nor Worcester, nor Reid—not even Web-Despatches from Shreveport to-day say the increase in the number of new deaths is greatly owing to the want of material. The mortality is beyond precedent, and it looks as though comparatively few will get well. The stores are all closed and dwelling houses turned into hospitals. In the stores are all charged the stores are all fact, Shreveport is one great charnel house. The number of sick is estimated variously at from 500 to 800.

London, Sept. 17-p. m. No organ of thought or action can be employed without the assistance of the blood, and no organ can be employed safely or with impunity without a supply of healthy blood. With healthy blood the exercised organs become well developed, whether they be muscular or intellectual. By the use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites the blood is speedily vitalized and purified, and so made capable of producing a sound mind and a sound body.

"Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving way, either as The Right Hon. Henry Bouverie Wm. Brand, Speaker of the House of Commons, and his family, will sail from Liverpool to New York on Saturday. They expect to remain abroad two months.
