

On motion of Brother W. M. Button, seconded by Brother Dewhurst, it was

Resolved—That the yeas and nays on the last motion, together with those taken on the election of Grand Master, be printed in the Minutes.

On motion of Brother McClure, seconded by Brother Newberry Button, it was

Resolved—That two thousand copies of the Report of the proceedings of this meeting of the Grand Lodge be printed, and distributed to the different County Masters, within two months from this date.

Brother Bessey gave notice that he would, at the next meeting of the Grand Lodge, request a speech to be made from the Chair, touching the main questions of the day, that the Orangemen of Canada may be placed in more popular standing.

On motion of Brother J. B. Elliott, seconded by Brother F. E. Cornish, it was

Resolved—That the Grand Treasurer be authorised to pay all printing accounts, and report at next meeting.

In pursuance of notice given yesterday, and on motion of Brother Dewhurst, seconded by Brother Cornish, it was

Resolved—That the Lectures of the Orange, Purple, Blue, Royal Arch, and Royal Scarlet, be now exemplified, for the information of the Brethren—(which was done accordingly.)

The minutes of this day's proceedings were then read over by the Grand Secretary, and approved of by the Lodge.

Brother Francis H. Medcalf, Grand Master elect, was then formally presented to the Right Worshipful the Grand Master, Brother Buckley, by whom he was sworn into office and duly installed.

Brother Medcalf then administered the oaths of office to the other Grand Officers elect, and the Grand Lodge was duly closed in loyalty, harmony and love.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.
