

As this Grand Lodge took no action in regard to the trouble that has shaken the Grand Lodge of Manitoba to its very centre, we will now be in a position to extend our congratulations to our sister Grand Lodge in the prairie Province of our Dominion for the happy termination of all matters in dispute, and trust that the experience gained in the past may stand up as a beacon light to warn, not only them, but all masonic bodies, from the rocks on which they split.

THOMAS A. MCLEAN,
Rep. Grand Lodge of Manitoba.

On motion, the Report of the Representative of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba was received.

R. W., Bro. Geo. W. Wakeford, Representative of the Grand Lodge of Utah, submitted the following report:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Prince Edward Island, A. F. & A. M.

I beg leave to submit the following Report, as the Representative of the Grand Lodge of Utah near this Grand Lodge, and in doing so will endeavor to present to view all matters of interest.

The Eighth Annual Communication was held at Salt Lake City, commencing 11th November, 1879, when all the Lodges (six) were represented. The R. W., Frank Tilford, Deputy Grand Master, presiding.

The M. W., Thomas Edward Cloheey, Grand Master, being unavoidably absent, transmitted his Annual Address to the Grand Lodge, which was read by P. G. M., John Shaw Scott. From the same I quote the following: "Happy those, whose retrospective glance brings with it no keen awakening of conscience for errors committed or opportunities for doing good unimproved; happy they, who can with clean hearts say, that in their intercourse with their fellow-men they have at all times been influenced by the principles of morality and brotherly love; that they have ever been ready to go out of the way to help a brother; that they have ever regarded his welfare as their own; that they have stretched forth the hand to assist a falling brother, and have whispered good counsel in his ear, kindly admonishing him and aiding in his reformation." Referring to the death of Brother Reuben H. Robertson, P. G. M., the M. W. Grand Master, says of him: "By nature unselfish, with a heart abounding in the
