Pale Anaemic Girls

Find New Health Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

There must be no guesswork in the treatment of pale, anaemic girls and children. If your daughter is languid, has a pale, sallow complexion, is short of breath after slight exertion or on going up stairs, if she has palpitation of the heart, a poor appetite, or a tendency to faint, she has anaemia—the medical name for poverty of the blood. Any delay in treatment may leave her weak and sickly for the rest of her life. Delay may even result in consumption, that most hopeless of diseases. When the blood is poor and watery, give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, coupled with nourishing food and gentle out-of-door exercise. The new, life-giving blood which follows a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stimulates the nerves, increases the appetite and brings the glow of health to pale cheeks. Mrs. W. E. Armour, Havelock, Ont., says:—"My little girl got into a very poor state of health. She was weak, very much run down and as the doctor did not seem to do her any good, I thought I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking six boxes of the pills she got nice and rosy and strong again. I would recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to anyone weak and run-down."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail post-paid at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PROTECTING THE INVESTMENT

Abraham Lincoln humorously said of a poor neighbor's assets, "He has a wife and two children which I should think were worth fifty thousand dollars to any man."

A family is indeed a golden investment and needs the same protection and care that any investment requires.

For three generations the editors of The Youth's Companion have felt the same responsibility to the families of subscribers as if those families were their own. In taking a subscription they have accepted a trust; they have done their part to see that the family investment increased in value through the development of character and a taste for the good things in life.

The 52 issues of 1923 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorial, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe Now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1923.
 2. All the remaining issues of 1924.
 3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1925. (Sent only on request.) All for $2.50.
 4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both only $3.00.
