Domestic Asides, or Truth in Parentheses. I really take it very kind, This visit, Mrs. Skinner!

I have not seen you such an age—
(The wretch has come to dinner!) Your daughters, too, what loves of girls-What heads for painters' easels! Come here and kiss the infant, dears, (And give it p'rhaps, the measles !)

Your charming boys, I see, are home From Rev. Mr. Russell's; Twas very kind to bring them both (What boots for my new Brussels!)

What! little Clara left at home? Well, now, I call that shabby ; I should have lov'd to kiss her so—
(A flabby, dabby babby!)

And Mr. S., I hope he's well, Ah! though he lives so handy, He never now drops in to sup-(The better for our brandy),

Come, take a seat-I long to hear About Matilda's marriage; You've come, of course, to spend the day
(Thank Heaven, I hear the carriage!)

What ! must you go ? next time 1 hope You'll give me greater measure; Nay—I shall show you down the stairs— (With most uncommon pleasure!)

Good bye! good bye! remember me Next time you'll take your dinners. (Now, David, mind I'm not at home In future to the Skinners!)

How it Happened.

Some of our exchanges have received the following old but good story : A number of politicians, some of whom were seeking office under the government, were seated on a tavern porch talking, when an old toper named John D-——, a person who was very loquacious when corned, but was exactly the opposite when sober, said that if the company had no objection, he would tell them a story. They told him to "fire away;" whereupon he spoke as fol-

A certain king—I don't recollect his name—had a philosopher, upon whose judgment he always depended. Now, it so happened that one day the king took it into his head to go hunting, and after summoning his nobles, and making the necessary preparations, he summoned his philosopher and asked him if it would rain. The philosopher told him it would not, and he and his nobles departed.

Dr. Ward's DEAD SHOT WORM CANDY.

(CERTIFICATE.)
Albany Medical College
December 15, 1862. I do hereby certify that I have analyse Dr. Ward's Dead Shot Worm Candy, and to the public I would say that they contain nothing that is in the least injurious to the youngest infant. They are entirely vegetable, and possess those truly anthelmintic qualities which above all others are preferable as exterminators of the common Tape

> J. V. P. QUACKENBUSH. Prof. of Obstetrics and diseases Women and Children

This Medicine has been prepared by the proprietors for a number of years; has been used with the most decided success in numerous families of the first respectability, and has received the approval and recommendation of several eminent medical gentlemen. The most alarming symptoms of the disease arising from the prevalence of worms in the intestines have been speedily and entirely removed by the use of the VEGETABLE

WORM CANDY. Dreadful indeed are the effects of these ernicious vermin on the constitution, destroying the appetite, vitiating the nourishing principles, and their certain consequen-ces are paleness, emaciation, a stoppage of the growth, etc., and often followed by consumption and decline. Even where worms ere not discharged, this medicine acts as a gentle and safe domestic physic-clearing the passages of whatever is nozious, intro-ducing a healthy chylc into the constitution. This is a purely vegetable preparation and contains nothing that is injurious to the smallest infant, and children will eat them as quickly as common candy.
