D. & J. SADLIER & Co., HAVE JUST PUBLISHED

THE GOLDEN MANUAL;

BEING A GUIDE TO CATHOLIC DEVOTION, PUBLIC AND

PRIVATE, With the approbation of the Most Rev. Dr. Hughes, Archbishop of New York.

THIS Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use, various devotions selected from approved continental works. The Prayers, Litanics, &c., have been collected from the Latin originals, wherever such were known to exist. The English versions of the Psalms here given, have been constructed by a comparison of the authorised Douay text, (to which in substance it adheres,) with the several other versions, which from time to time have been sanctioned for the purpose of devotion. The indulgenced prayers have been literally translated from the Racotla, Bonviers' Treatise on Indulgences, and the best edition of the Cæleste Palmetam. The particulars connected with the Confraternities, &c., to which indulgences are attached, have been carefully collected from authorised sources.

The American Edition has been enlarged by the addition of THREE HUNDRED PACES of matter, under the supervision of a Receivers of the contract of the contr THIS Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use

The American Edition has been entarged by the addition of THREE HUNDRED PACES of matter, under the supervision of a Rev. gentleman of New York. Many new translations have been made expressly for it, and a great number of Prayers have been added, which are in constant use in this country. The Illustrations are appropriate and well executed.

We send this book confidently before the public, with the assurance that no expense has been spared to make it (what it really is) the most complete Prayer Book ever published in the English language.

The following notice of the work, is taken from Brownson's

English language.

The following notice of the work, is taken from Brownson's Quarterly Review for July, 1851:—

"This is a reprint from an English Manual approved by Cardinal Wiseman, with large additions by the American editor. It is the largest and most complete manual of devotion we are acquainted with. It contains a great variety of devotions, adapted to almost every occasion and to every laste, and, as far as we have examined it, selected with judgment and true devotional feeling. We know of little, except in devotions before and after communion, that we could desire to have added, and we have met with nothing in it that we wish to have omitted. It is due to the publishers to say that the copy before us is well printed, and rieally bound. It contains numerous illustrations, several of which are executed with much skill and artistic skill and taste. There is no occasion to commend this Golden and taste. There is no occasion to commend this Golden Manual to the public, for it is approved by the Most Rev. the Archbishop of New York, and is sure to become, and descreedly, a great favorite with devont Christians."

BENJAMIN; OR THE PUPIL OF THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadlier—32mo. of 250 pages, price only is 3d, or 10s. the dozen.

The following preface by the translator, will explain the nature of the work :-

"At the present moment when the whole Catholic world is "At the present moment when the whole Catholic world is awaking to the vital importance of securing a religious education for the rising generation, it seemed to me that this little work might do a great deal of good, and I have hastly thrown it into an English form for the benefit of our own people, both parents and children. Let both read, the children for annisement, and the parents for instruction, and let the latter reflect on the contents of this simple volume,—they will find it a most weefel beauty. useful lesson.

It is with inexpressible joy that I see the schools of the Christian Brothers spreading from town to town and from eay to city throughout the length and breadth of Christendom. Nation after nation is opening her arms to invite their approach, and wherever they go, they bring with them true faith, hamble fervent piety, and the purest of all morality. These are the lessons they every where ineutente, and our Benjamin is but one instance of the benign effects of their teachings. The day has at length come, when Catholic parents have no longer an excuse for sending their children to Godless' schools—they all have the means of having sound religious instructions, blended with their children's secular learning, and we be to them if they avail themselves not of the advantages placed by Providence at their disposal."

SAMUEL COCHRAN invites the attention of Consumers to his Stock of TEAS and COFFEES, which have been selected with the greatest care, and on such terms as to allow him to offer them at unusually low prices.

The MACHINERY on the Premises, worked by a Four Horse Power Steam Engine, for Roasting and Grinding Coffee, is on the most approved plan, the Coffee being closely confined in polished metal spheres, which are constantly revolving and oscillating in heated air chambers, is prevented imbibling taint from Smoke, danger of partial carbonisation of the Bean and loss of Aroma, so important to Counisseurs, which is further ensured by attention to Grinding at the shortest time prior to Sale. To this claborate process SAMUEL COCHRAN owes the high reputation his Coffee has obtained through a large portion of the Provinces. portion of the Provinces.
