

Proviso. opened or shut : Provided always, that every inhabitant interested in the said Common, shall have a right to put the number of cattle so determined on to graze on the said Common, and no more.

Trustees to make regulations concerning the said Common.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Chairman and Trustees aforesaid, or any three or more of them, by writing under their hands and the seal of the said Corporation, to make and establish rules and orders for the ordering and well governing of the Common aforesaid, and the same to annul or revoke, and other rules and orders to make and establish in the place thereof, as occasion may require, which rules and orders, being approved by the Court of Quarter Sessions, in the District of Three Rivers, or by the Judge of the Superior Court in the said District, shall be read, published and posted up at the Church door of the Parish at least two Sundays before they shall have force and effect, and the same shall hereafter be binding on ail and every person or persons having commonage in the said Common, in so far as regards the said Common, and being specially pleaded, shall be taken notice of by all Courts and by all Judges and Justices in his Province.

Reciprocal rights of Seignior and inhabitants not to be affected.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no rule or order that may at any time be made in virtue of this Act, shall in anywise prejudice or affect, or be construed to prejudice or affect, in any manner, such reciprocal rights and privileges as the Seignior and inhabitants of the aforesaid Seigniory may, in virtue of their deeds, titles or contracts, have guaranteed to each other previous to the passing of this Act.

Penalties limited and appropriated.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no penalty which shall be made or imposed by the said rules or orders, shall exceed the sum of ten shillings current money of this Province, and that all and every the penalties which shall be so made or imposed, shall be used and appropriated by the said Corporation to the benefit and improvement of the said Common, and in such manner as the said Corporation shall deem most expedient for that purpose.

Trustees to lay annual accounts before the General Meetings.

XIV. And be it enacted, That at every general election pursuant to this Act, the Chairman and Trustees retiring, or about to retire from office, shall, previous to the election of their successors, lay before the meeting of the inhabitants aforesaid, assembled for that purpose, a full and clear account of all the monies or other things received and disbursed, or expended by them, in the execution of their office, under the authority of this Act; and they shall also deliver over to their successors in office, whatever money or other things may be then remaining in their hands, together with all books of accounts, book of entry, or other books kept by