

The Ironmen Continue Their Streak

The UNB Ironmen "A" side has extended their season record to four wins and one loss in New Brunswick league play with their shutout victory over the Saint John Trojans 21-0 on Saturday Sept. 18th.

There was little doubt that the Ironmen would ever underestimate the Saint John Trojans going into perhaps one of their most important games of the season. As of late the Trojans have been able to field a surprisingly competitive rugby team, and Saturday appeared to be no exception.

The Ironmen, wary of possible after effects of their recent Eastern Canadian win, started the game at a level of fitness and ferocity that was maintained throughout. Seven minutes into the game Saint John drew a costly penalty (one of many) at their 30 metre mark. This allowed UNB to score the first points of the game on a drop goal from inside center Randy Ketterling.

Twelve minutes later "the boy next door", Doug Stewart, fresh from a record setting weekend (44 points), placed another monotonously perfect field goal between the posts. From this point forward, the game took a noticeable twist, as Saint John decided they would throw technique and fair play to the wind. To all who witnessed, the remainder of the game was a quagmire of penalties and brawling antics, not at all what was expected by the many fans that had flocked to the field.

The UNB forwards were oblivious to the senseless violence surrounding them, and methodically beat the Trojan pack into polite submission.

Before the first half would end Stewart would place two more field goals through the uprights. 12-0 UNB at half.

As the final half commenced UNB met with stiff competition, the backs ran into problems, unable to break the Trojan line, tempers flared. It was Old Tim Doherty who injected a semblance of maturity to the lads as he controlled and executed play after play beaming with pride as his boys regained spiritual oneness.

Stewart was to kick one more field goal to add another three points. Saint John was in a furor, fists were flying in all directions, Ian Wilson would have been safer in a tree, or a balcony, or wherever. Fitness began to pay-off as a second rowmen Mike McClare and Howard Constable began to break the Trojan lineout at whim. Faintly audible cries sounded from the Trojan front row as The Hammer, Ash and Scott, lectured on the absolute necessity of good manners during a rugby match.

With ten minutes left, the forwards, supported beautifully by the backs, handled and passed their way thirty yards upfield finally allowing Randy Ketterling to run the final fifteen yards for the score.

On a serious note, referee Chris Stevenson should be commended for his professionalism and good judgement in affectively controlling a game that was threatening to get seriously out of hand.

The Ironmen play at College Field on Saturday against the first place Fredericton Loyalists at 3:00 pm. They will also travel to Saint John on Sunday to meet the Trojans one last time. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Rugby Ingenuity

By GREG HOARE

Rumour has it that when UNB's rugby team was in Lennoxville, Quebec last October 11, the Public Works Department was having trouble with a drain near the field. It had been reported to the workers that the drain was blocked, so they naturally approached the UNB rugby team for suggestions on methods to resolve this crisis. After consulting with the astute scholars on the UNB team and working out numerous formulas that would make any person's head spin and back teeth float, it was decided the only solution was intense and direct pressure. Sacrificing their bodies for the good of the people in Lennoxville, they consumed large amounts of liquids. After several attempts and excellent teamwork the drain was finally cleared!!

Needless to say the town was relieved and so was UNB's rugby team.

Mascot For the Ironmen??!

During the Ironmen's stay in Lennoxville, Quebec they decided to find a mascot which would best exemplify the type of image they would like to portray.

A little bunny rabbit or a cute puppy dog wouldn't fit the bill, so they opted for leather. (But stuck with the dog collar.) Does anyone know the whereabouts of this man??!! (Or want to?)
