

memories that are sacred to you and me. I know what your prayers mean to me and I should like you to feel that I shall be thinking of you and that I shall thank God with a grateful heart for your friendship, and all that He has permitted us to enjoy together. Again let me thank you, thank you with all my heart and with the gratitude which one must feel who knows that but for another his life would not be what it is. Your thought and generous love freed me of a great care at a time when the weight of worldly things seems to fall heavily about my shoulders, and I shall do as you say and seek rest, realizing that it is rest which I most need. God bless you

With the kindest of Easter greetings Ever gratefully and affectionately Yours
