348 Q: Well, I guess the people of Vancouver will be glad you are going to Toronto.

NG YUEN MING. Sworn. Exam. by the Commissioner.

49 Q: Where did you get the money to pay for your passage out?

A: My brother.

50 Q: Where does he live, in Toronto? A: He is in Hong Kong.

51 Q: Has he ever been in America? Have you ever been here before? A: No.

52 Q: Are you going to Toronto now? Why are you going there?

A: I have got a cousin in Toronto.

53 Q: What does he do? A: Laundry.

54 Q: And are you going to work in the laundry with him? A: Yes, I think I going to work at laundry.

55 Q: Did he write to you to come out? A: He got a letter from his cousin in Toronto which says if you want to come to Canada, you got to pay poll tax to come.

56 Q: That was not very encouraging. Did you come on the strength of that? Ask him if that is what induced him to come, so that he could pay the poll tax? A: He just says he asked him if he could get work in town, so his cousin wrote to him suppose you come you got to pay poll tax.

57 Q: You wrote to your cousin to ask him if he could get you work in Toronto? A: Yes..

58 Q: And then he wrote to you, that if you came, you would have to pay the poll tax, but you could get work in his laundry? A: Yes.
