

Fall of 1882. For the illegitimate child of these parties, I have to inform you that the same cannot be entertained as the parents were not married until after the 30th September or 31st October of that year, and the former date was the time when the annuity fell due; therefore annuity was not payable to the child until the Spring of 1883. When he received it, however the child was improperly allowed annuity from 1879 to the 3.

Indian Affairs, Letterbook, 17 May 1890 - 29 May 1890, (R.G. 10, Volume 4648)

Poor
 Copy

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
 ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
 CANADA