

INDEX

273

- Mitchell, John—Continued
 114, 128-29; life and character, 127-28; and Anthracite Coal Strike, 129-30; quoted, 131-32; on compulsory membership in unions, 170; on collective bargaining, 170; sentenced to imprisonment, 182, 254
 Montana, "hobo" labor in, 190; violence in, 193; and I. W. W., 216
 Mooney, Thomas, Nine Years in America (1850), quoted, 43-44
 Moore, Ely, 31
 Morrison, Frank, 182, 254
 Morrissey, P. H., 146, 148, 158-60

 National Civic Federation, 152
 National Convention of Journeymen Printers (1850), 60
 National Erectors' Association, 249
 National Labor party, convention, 230 (note); see also Labor Reform party
 National Labor Union, 73-74, 229
 National Metal Trade Association, 125
 National Protective Association, 133
 National Trade Association of Hat Finishers, 60
 National Trades Union, 34
 National Typographical Union, 60
 National Union party, 233
 Navigation Laws, 6, 10
 Nebraska, labor ticket (1888), 237
 Nevada, and I. W. W., 216
 New Brunswick, union in, 34
 New England, class distinctions, 20; manufacture in, 25; women in textile mills, 55; cotton weavers' strike (1880), 67; labor politics, 225-27
 New England Association of Farmers, Mechanics, and Workingmen, 225
 New England Protective Union, 48
 New England Workingmen's Association, 46, 51
 New Hampshire, first ten-hour law, 52
 New Jersey, manufacturing in, 25; delegates to national cordwainers' convention (1836), 35; ten-hour law (1851), 54; stablemen's strike (1880), 67; labor party (1878), 232
 New York (State), delegates to national cordwainers' convention (1836), 35; communistic colonies, 41; cotton weavers' strike (1880), 67; eight-hour law (1867), 71; boycotts, 178; labor party (1878), 232; United Labor party in, 235; labor code, 249
 New York Boycotter quoted, 179
 New York Bureau of Statistics and Labor, on boycotts, 178
 New York Central Railroad, Arthur as engineer on, 141
 New York City, early labor organizations, 21, 22; cordwainers' strike (1809), 23-24; growth, 25; strikes (1833), 31; General Trades' Union organized, 31; tailors' strike (1836), 32; union in, 34; boycott of convict labor, 37; sabotage in (1835), 38; strike benefits, 39; cooperative movement, 47-48; women's organizations (1825), 55; Female Industry Association organized (1845), 56; strikes (1853), 57; national meeting of carpet-