

NEWS FROM NEW BRUNSWICK.

TWO S. O. E. MEN ELECTED TO THE LEGISLATURE.

An Outline of their Public Career—Men who are a Credit to their Nation—A Grand Lodge Visitor Wanted.

A Fredericton, N.B., correspondent writes under date Nov. 29.—I do not intend this as a news letter so much as an apology for not keeping you posted about the doings of the S.O.E.B.S. down here, and also for my not sending you more subscribers for your valuable paper, which I am pleased to see is always full of interesting articles in relation to the Order and other matter quite as interesting to all loyal Canadians.

ISLINGTON LODGE is still slowly and surely gaining ground. Inaugurated on the 20th August, 1891, with but 9 charter members, and having to overcome all the difficulties in the way of new societies before their objects are fully known, and not having as large a proportion of Englishmen and their descendants to get a membership from as some other places, we have overcome all, and have now a membership of some 42, with good prospects ahead for a much larger number during the coming year. We hold our meetings fortnightly, have been to considerable expense in getting regalia and lodge furniture, etc., yet we are happy to be able to state that we are always in a position to make our returns to Grand Lodge promptly, pay our surgeon and all the demands for sick benefits that are made upon us and still have a small deposit in bank to draw from to meet any demands that are made upon us.

The organization of the Rose of Stanley Lodge, in Stanley, York Co., was one of the good results of instituting the Order in Fredericton. Rose of Stanley has now some 50 or more members. I am also happy to state that two members of the Order have been ELECTED TO THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE from the County of York, Brother Wm. K. Allen, of Islington, and Bro. Wm. T. Howe, of Rose of Stanley.

The election of those two popular members of the Order is a matter of congratulation to the members of the Order here. Bro. Allen is a young man of ability, and descended from a family who have been connected with the politics of this province from almost its first existence as a province. His grand-father, the late Col. Allen and his father, the present Chief Justice both having represented the county of York in the Local Legislature for a number of years, and have always been connected with progressive and honest legislation. We have every reason to believe that Brother Allen's political record will reflect no discredit upon his connections.

Bro. Howe is a highly intellectual and progressive farmer, and one of the best drilled and enthusiastic captains in the 71st Batt., a man who can deal intelligently with any subject that may come before the House, and a man whose unswerving loyalty to the Old Flag is known wherever he is.

I hope that in the near future some prominent

MEMBER OF THE GRAND LODGE will again visit the maritime provinces and if they do I think the result of it would be the organization of quite a number of new lodges, as plenty of valuable information could be given now which could not be given to the first gentleman who visited us at the time they instituted Islington here.

In the near future I shall send you a new list of subscribers and any short articles of interest in relation to the Order that may come before my notice.

Bros. Thos. Corrin Wins the Symbolic Pin.

Port Perry, Nov. 24.—A word from Old England Lodge No. 6, S.O.E.B.S. I thought would not be amiss through the columns of your valuable paper. About one year ago there was a motion recorded on our Lodge Books that the member who would bring in the most candidates for membership into our Order here in twelve months would receive a handsome pin. I am glad to say that the lot fell on Bro. Thos. Corrin, who was made the recipient of a nice pin bearing the Union Jack with the letters S.O.E. The same was presented by our Worthy President, Bro. A. W. Allin, who afterwards made a few remarks encouraging the brethren to bring more candidates into our beloved order.

At our last regular meeting we had an invitation from Buckingham Lodge No. 49, Uxbridge, to come over and make them a visit at an early date. Some ten of our brethren went over and had the pleasure of witnessing an initiation in the R. Rose Degree, and after the general business was over they gave way to our brethren assisted by District Deputy Bro. Edmett, to establish a new lodge with them. I am glad to say that we had the pleasure to open with 11 members. After business relating to the Order was over we were invited to Bro. Bennett's, the proprietor of the Mansion House, where we partook of a bounteous repast provided by the good ladies, oysters, turkey, beef steak, goose, plum pudding, etc. After wishing Buckingham Lodge a prosperous future the company dispersed and wended their way home after spending a good time.

Newfoundland and Confederation.

It is pretty generally believed that the question of Newfoundland's entry into the Dominion was discussed, at the recent Halifax meeting and that a basis of terms was agreed upon, which the Newfoundland delegates will submit to their Government, and if acceptable the question of confederation will be submitted to plebiscite. It is claimed there is a strong popular feeling in Newfoundland in favor of joining the Canadian Confederation, but the influence of the mercantile establishments, most of them branches of British houses, is straight against it. The general opinion of moderate men in Newfoundland politics is that sooner or later confederation is bound to come in the natural order of events, but that to make the matter a political issue, or in any other way to agitate the question, would serve only to delay the consummation.

The Trumpet Call to Action.

The Sheffield, Eng., Daily Telegraph, commenting on Hon. G. E. Foster's speech at the Sheffield Cutler's feast, says: "Our Colonial friends are eloquent with the grandest and truest of all eloquence—the eloquence of earnestness. They speak as if they had been touched with live coals from off the altar of patriotism. In the Mother Land we have succeeded to the labors of other generations; in Canada, Australia, and other Colonies these men of sterling grit are hard at work, and whatsoever their hands find to do they do it with all their might, and when they come to us, as they did last night, their words are as a trumpet call to action."

The appointment of Collector of Customs of Ottawa will shortly be vacant by the superannuation of Mr. Z. Wilson, the incumbent. For the successorship, a number of local politicians have been named. As the postmaster-ship and inland revenue collectorship have both been given to Catholics, the protestants are making their opinion known that the customs, all other things being equal, should be held by a protestant, as before. Mr. J. T. Bartlam, surveyor of customs, who has been in the department many years and is next in rank to the collector is considered the proper person to be promoted for the position by the merchants and traders of the city generally.
