tions already contracted, and the preparations that are being made for the many new undertakings so necessary in a young district such as St. Michael's. The parish is in a thriving condition in every respect, dotted as it is with the marks of thrift and good-will so desirable at all times. The last acquisition to the sacred edifice is a fine new organ. During the service the choir rendered several pieces. On the whole everything in and about the church bespeaks united action and good-will existing between pastor and people which cannot fail to draw down God's blessing upon their numerous and well-directed efforts.

MEETING OF CATHOLIC SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

At a meeting of the Catholic School Board, which resumed its sittings on Tuesday under the presidency of Canon Dauth, a special committee was named upon the motion of Commissioner Martineau, to deal with the question of uniformity of text books in the schools controlled by the board. To this committee were appointed Commissioners Martineau, Semple and Canon Dauth, the president of the Board. It will be remembered that the suggestion of providing uniform text books, which was made by Commissioner Martineau some time ago, met with a good deal of opposition from certain members of the board, but now it looks as if a definite understanding had been reached. The Board was in receipt of a letter from Dr. Severin Lachapelle, recommending the teaching of physiology and hygiene in the schools. The suggestion was referred to a special committee for consideration.

FUNERAL OF A FRENCH SAILOR

The funeral of Maurice Colin, one of the sailors of the French man-of-war Desaix, who was accidentally drowned a few days ago, took place at Quebec on Saturday last, and was the occasion of much sympathy being displayed by the people of the old city of Champlain towards their cousins beyond the sea. A squad of policemen, the members of the Champlain Guard, and delegates from different sections of the St. Jean Baptiste Society joined with the officers and men of the two French warships in the funeral cortege: flags were at half mast on several buildings, and the stores were closed along the route of the procession. The service was held in the old Church of St. Roch, and among those present were Mr. Kleczkowski, consul of France; Major Sheppard, representing the Lieutenant-Governor, and Admiral Boni de Lapeyriere. After the service the remains were conveyed to the St. Charles Cemetery for interment. Before the body was placed in the grave Admiral de Lapeyriere delivered a short address in the course of which he said that the sympathies shown on Canadian soil would certainly be a consolation for the bereaved mother of the poor young sailor.

DEDICATION OF NEW CONVENT AT STE. GENEVIEVE.

On Sunday afternoon His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi presided at the dedication of a new convent at Ste. Genevieve, the scene of the sad disaster in April, 1905. The new structure is built of stone, four stories high, and measures one hundred by fifty feet. It is equipped with the latest improvements, including fire escapes and acetylene gas lighting system. Fire hoses are distributed in the halls of each story, so that a repetition of last year's calamity is reduced to a minimum. The institution is capable of accommodating two hundred pupils.

Thursday evening. There was a very large audience and many people could not get admission. The ravages of alcoholism were eloquently described by the lecturer, and the well-chosen illustrations shown with calcium light produced a marked effect. The Rev. Father made it a point to denounce women's drinking clubs, which he declared to exist in Montreal. He said such clubs could be found in the best society, and women were known to pass their evenings playing cards and drinking gin. Those women always finding some kind dealer ready to provide them with liquor, and to cause husbands to wonder how it is their "grocery" bills run so high. He also called upon wives, mothers, daughters and sisters to make the home attractive, and warned young girls against marrying a man who drinks.

CATHOLIC SAILORS' CONCERT.

The concert given by the friends of the Catholic Sailors was, as usual, a grand success. The entertainment was, this week, taken charge of by Branch, No. 232 of the C. M. B. A. In the absence of the Rev. Father Malone, S. J., who has for some time past opened the Concerts; that function was performed by Mr. Geo. Carpenter, who certainly did the honors with credit to himself and pleasure to the audience. The chairman of the evening was Mr. Gillies, President of the Branch. The programme was long, carefully chosen; and certainly well carried out. Mention is due to Misses B. and A. Rowan and Misses Grant and Fitzgerald; as also to Messrs. Crooney, Carrigan, Farrell, O'Farrell, Murphy, Booth, Edmunds, Holland and McLaughlin; who certainly did their utmost to amuse all present by the freedom with which they responded to the many calls made upon them, as well as by the nature and tone of their performances. Father Malone, though absent at the opening; yet, towards the close, those present were well repaid by hearing from him an address which they will not soon forget. Next week's Concert will be in the hands of Loyola Court, C. O. F., when doubtlessly a grand event may be looked forward to.

THE POTATO BLIGHT IN IRELAND.

The Manchester Guardian's Dublin correspondent confirms the report of potato blight in western Ireland. There is no doubt that its ravages are serious and widespread. The blight was first noticed in the Moycullen district and in Galway. The disease has struck the crop everywhere during the severe rains of the last fortnight. It is too soon yet to talk of famine, but everything will now depend on the weather of the next few weeks.
