ISAIAH, the 15 year-old son of Widow Hellyer, of Arthur tp., near Kenilworth, died on Wednesday evening of last week from the effects of a blow received by a board being hurled against his abdomen from the belt of a threshing machine which was at work in his mother's barn. The funeral took place on Friday at the Methodist church, Kenilworth, and the widowed mother has the deepest sympathy of all in her terrible affliction.

On Tuesday morning of last week the little daughter of Mr. B. Carver, Buttonville, 4th con Markham, was found by her mother hanging by the back of her dress to a self binder which was standing near the house. Upon examination it was found that life was extinct. It is supposed that the child had been playing around the binder and was in the act of climbing upon it when she fell, her dress catching in the machinery, with the above result, the clothing being pulled so tightly around her neck as to strangle her.

Mr. Geo. Brown, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co., says:—"For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and relief I obtained through Chase's Ointment prompts me to give this testimonial. My physician wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without the knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure."

On Thursday last, Joseph Bullard was working at one of the saws in Button & Fessant's factory, Wingham, when suddenly the piece of board he was cutting was caught by the saw and hurled with terrible force, striking Mr. Bullard in the bowels. Some idea of the force of the blow may be gained by remembering that the saw was making about two thousand revolutions a minute. He was at once conveyed to his home and skilful medical attendance secured. Day after day, he bore bravely the most severe pain, until Monday afternoon, until death came to his release. Deceased was born in the county of Halton, and was at time of his death, 48 years of age. For several years he was chief constable of Wingham. He was twice married; of the first family, two daughters remain, one of whom is very ill in the North West. Of the second family there are four, one a boy of seventeen, and three younger. The sincere sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing family, bereft as they are of the breadwinner. The funeral took place on Wednesday; the Fire Brigade, Factory hands, Orangemen and Maccabees forming a large procession, marched to the cemetery.

DR. A. W. CHASE LECTURING AT ANN ARBOR, MICH.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

Recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in the American Journal of Health, of February 19, says:—

"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is 'Dr. Chase's Ointment,' compounded by THE DR. A. W. CHASE MEDICINE CO., Buffalo, N. Y., and Edmanson, Bates Co., Toronto, Ont., as a remedy for sores, eruptions, and skin diseases of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success, and has effected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seemed to baffle the skilful medical attendant. The results were most favourable, proving the value of 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' as a curative agent in the diseases named. The manufacturers of the remedy are well-known as experienced pharmacists, careful and reliable, in addition to which we have made full examination, and find the article to be all that is claimed for it. It is not the practice of the medical profession to indorse indiscriminately the use of proprietary medicines, but while we condemn the bad and worthless, we are still more ready to indorse and recommend the remedy deserving the recognition."

"Neither the physician nor the responsible Journal of Health now refuses to acknowledge the claims of such proprietary remedies as 'Dr. Chase's Ointment,' which prove their virtues by curing where other agencies have failed."

"We know that 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' meets all requisitions of the highest standard of worth, that it is held in high esteem wherever it is used, and consequently we indorse it to every reader."
