Busy Trenton News

(From our Own Correspondent)

Trenton, June 10th, 1918. A very delightful dance was given by the tennis members of the Dupre Club Saturday in the spacious lounge of their club. A very fine musical program was furnished by Miss Margaret Gauthier, who is a member of the British Chemical Co., also of the Tennis Club. Dancing was freely indulged in whilst a very dainty luncheon was served by the ladies of the club.

Mr. A. C. C. McIntyre returned to town today from his visit with Mrs. McIntyre at Ottawa. Miss Helen Higgins was a visitor to Trenton Saturday, returning this morning having visited with her brother, Sapper George Higgins, who is ill at the base hospital, Toronto.

Mrs. W. Daverson with her son, Lieut. Harold Daverson, of Concession were visitors to town this morning enroute for Camp Borden where the latter, has transferred from the R.N.A.S. to the Royal Flying Corps, having been promoted to adjutant in that branch of the service.

Miss Joan Collins returned home today from her visit with her parents at Toronto who reside in that city.

Mr. George B. McCombe was a visitor to Belleville over the weekend.

Mr. C. K. Woods visited with his parents at home this week-end.

Miss Elsie G. Harrison, of Port Hope was in town over the weekend, the guest of her friend, Miss Catherine L. Woods.

Mrs. Norman Ryan was in Belleville Saturday.

Sergei-Major David Chambers, who is stationed at Norma Heights, Toronto, was in town over the weekend. He recently returned from overseas and is a proud possessor of the Battle of Mons bar, after which he saw further and much active service at the Somme, also Vimy Ridge.

Miss K. L. Matthews, of Napawan was in town Sunday, enroute with Miss L. Patton, of that place.

Mrs. R. B. Jones was in Pictou Saturday last.

Mr. Willott Beddel was at Concession visiting with Lance Daverson over the weekend.

Glorious sunshine favoured us Saturday but kept very cold. Sunday quite a deluge of rain fell and it was

Diamond Jubilee

It was sixty years ago on the 27th of May that an item appeared in the local papers announcing that Lewis Bradshaw, of the Township of Thurlow and Mary Matilda Reid of the same township, had been united in matrimony by the Rev. John Carroll.

The young couple went immediately to reside near what is now called the village of Corbyville where they spent many happy years of their wedded life and where they won many life-long friends. They started well as they early set up the Christian home whose influence has been far reaching and profound.

Some years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw moved to the village of Foxboro where their lives were also spent in the Master's work and where they are still living today.

On Monday, May 27th Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedded life. The guests who took dinner with them were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weaver, and daughter of Rawdon Township, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid, of Carmel and Rev. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kemp, of Foxboro.

Though full of years and weakened in body we are pleased to report that the flame of religious power still burns brightly within their home and that brother and sister Bradshaw have truly renewed their youth as the eagle.

We voice the sentiments of score of friends both in Foxboro and elsewhere when we wish them still many years of life together.

Knight MacGregor Wins Laurels

The Birmingham (Alabama) Age-Herald, June 3rd, says: "Yesterday afternoon's community singing program in Capital Park was enjoyable for beginning to end, but the outstanding feature was Knight MacGregor's appearance by courtesy of the Redpath Chautauqua. His rich baritone voice could be heard to the farthest limits of the park and every note caused a heart-thrill. Mr. MacGregor is a friend of Harry Lauder and most of the songs he sang were after the style of the celebrated entertainer. He gave 'The Long Long Trail' as Lauder

Two Madoc Men Suffocated

Had Been Attending Farmers' Convention in Toronto—Left Gas Burning.

Toronto, June 11.—William Lahey, and Richard Goggin, both aged 50 and from Madoc, Ont. were found dead in bed at two o'clock Saturday afternoon in their room at the Kirby House at the corner of William and Queen Streets. Both of the men were farmers and were in the city attending the United Farmers' of Ontario convention now meeting here.

They retired fairly early Friday night, and nothing was heard from them until the proprietor of the hotel, John M. Lockhall, wondering why they had not arisen, had their room door broken open. They had evidently gone to sleep leaving the gas burning, and during the night, it is supposed, it was turned off at the meter. When turned on again in the morning the fumes quickly filled the room and the two men died in their sleep.

MISS HELEN FAIRFIELD. After a long and trying illness, borne with cheerful courage, this respected lady passed away at her late residence "Hillside," the home of her late sister, Mrs. Duncan Macdougall. Miss Fairfield was the daughter of the late Dr. James Fairfield, a cousin of the late Judge Fairfield and of the late Mrs. Walter Ross of Pictou. Miss Fairfield was the last of five sisters—Mrs. Macdougall, Mrs. (Judge) Fitzgerald, Mrs. (Capt.) E. B. Smith, Mrs. John W. Langmuir and herself; all celebrated for their bright wit, intelligence and beauty. There was one brother, James Fairfield, a lawyer, who died comparatively early in life. Miss Fairfield was active in all benevolent and good works in her youth, and though for many years a complete invalid, her interest and practical assistance was always ready and cheerfully given to the last.

District Gave 59,117 Recruits

Dominion Has Enlisted 533,306 Men—3,777 Men Secured in the Month of May.

In the month of May a total of 7,336 recruits were obtained in Canada and the United States for the Canadian Army, of which number 32,207 were Infantrymen. This, added to the total number of men secured since the outbreak of the war until May 1st, makes 533,306 men enlisted in the Canadian army.

Last month the Toronto district led with 3,067 recruits, while the other districts were as follows: Montreal, 4,131; London, 4,107; Kingston, 3,777; Vancouver, 3,502; Winnipeg, 3,500; Alberta, 3,178; St. John, 3,055; Halifax, 2,200; Regina, 1,896; Quebec, 882. In this district seven of the recruits obtained were from the United States.

Since the commencement of the war the military districts have enlisted men as follows: Toronto, 120,421; Winnipeg, 92,949; Kingston 59,117; Montreal, 51,569; Vancouver, 51,234; Halifax, 41,593; Quebec, 11,092; St. John, 4,600. Kingston thus is third in recruiting, an enviable record for a district the size of No. 3.

Champion Cow Bred in Sidney

The report that a Holstein calf had been sold at a sale at Milwaukee Wis., for the incredible price of $106,000, also stated that the calf was the son of May Echo Sylvia, of the herd of Mr. A. C. Hardy, of Brockville. This world's champion, May Echo Sylvia was bred in Sidney on the farm of Mr. Fred R. Mallory nine years ago. While she was a calf, Mr. Mallory, not realising what a treasure he had, sold her to Mr. E. Maybee, of Murray township for $100. Mr. Maybee kept her a couple of years and sold her to Mr. A. C. Hardy, of Brockville for $3000. Two years ago she became famous as the world's champion, she having produced 41 pounds of butter in a week by official test. The telegraphed report said that May Echo Sylvia had been sold for $53,000. That was an error. She is still the property of Mr. Hardy. He was offered $25,000 for her shortly after she made her record, but turned down the offer. It is not probable that $50,000 would buy her today. The $53,000 refers to the sale of another Holstein calf at Worcester, Mass., which was the world's record price up to last Friday's sale.

May Echo Sylvia is the granddaughter of May Echo. The latter was also a world's champion and was bred by Mr. Mallory and sold at the Belleville district sale six years ago for $1,525 to Mr. Allison of Chesterville. Mr. Allison still has the grand dam in his herd, as well as May Echo Verbeke, the mother of May Echo Sylvia.

We might also note that the record established by May Echo Sylvia has since been several times surpassed on the American side of the line where one Holstein has reached the phenomenal record of 50 pounds of butter production in a seven-day test. Only two weeks ago a new Canadian record was made of 43 pounds of butter in a week by a Holstein in Western Ontario.
