UNION LABEL BRANTFORD

Saturday, March 22, 1913

WILL GO THROUGH.

The Courier for many years has not mis-called one election either in the four Brants, or in the Dominion. That may have resulted from judgment, or sheer luck, take it either way and the fact remains.

Now then, this paper ventures the opinion that the Borden navy bill will be put through, and that there will not be an early election.

Certain Grit sheets, including The Brantford Expositor, seek to make believe that Borden and his associates are up an umfallula tree.

In reality they are complete masters of the situation and intend to remain that way.

LAURIER ISSUES A MANIFESTO

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has issued a manifesto on the navy question.

The document is not remarkable in any way, and in fact, throughout is a begging of the question.

He conveniently ignores (1) The information given Premier Borden by the members of a Liberal Government in the Old Land that an emergency exists and (2) the unanswerable statement of Winston Churchill First Lord of the Admiralty that Canada cannot now, or for many years build and equip a modern Dreadnought.

This is the whole situation in a nutshell.

Sir Wilfrid concludes:

"In the working of Parliamentary institutions it has not unfrequently happened that deadlocks occurred between the Government and the Opposition. Experience has shown that there are only two methods of providing for a solution—one is the use of brute force, the other is an appeal to the people."

If by "brute force" Sir Wilfrid means closure (Gladstone method) well then by all means let it come. Such a proviso cannot be put in operation too speedily.

ENDORSING THE BORDEN POLICY.

At a meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East held in Peterboro there was a great scene of enthusiasm when a resolution was passed in favor of the Borden naval policy. Those present rose in a body and sang Rule Britannia and God Save the King.

The resolution was moved and seconded by two life-long Liberals, Dundas Monroe of Cornwall and W. Landon of Lansdowne, and is as follows:

"That, whereas the Dominion of Canada has always freely received the protection of the British navy, and, whereas, up to the present time this Dominion has not contributed anything toward the support of said navy, and, whereas financial conditions in Canada are now such that it devolves upon us as Canadians to assume our full and special share of all imperial responsibilities; and, whereas, this grand lodge is sensible of the fact that this is a time when the safety of the empire is endangered through the great recent increase in the naval forces of the European powers, therefore, be it "Resolved that the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East do place itself on record as heartily approving of the expenditure of a sum not less than $35,000,000 for the purpose of building and equipping the Dreadnoughts to be added to the strength of the British navy in the North Sea."

VACCINATION.

There are some excellent people who do not believe in the efficacy of vaccination.

That of course is, individuals their own business, but from a community standpoint it isn't.

There cannot be any reasonable doubt that Dr. Edward Jenner made a world discovery when in 1796 he brought to a practical and successful test the practice of inoculation for the preventative of a disease which used at periods to decemate Europe.

It was at one time quite a common thing in the Old Land to see people with pock marks. How many such cases can now be witnessed?

Recently the Chicago Tribune
