IBy Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, Oct. 22.-11 a.m.-A Havas Agency despatch from Petrograd says: "The Russian troops are manifesting great courage and energy in the defense of Warsaw, many times successfully repulsing heavy attacks and at the same time establishing more firmly the union of Poles and Slavs.

"Intercepted documents show that the Germans expected to cap ture Warsaw some time between October 15 and 17. The Siberian regiments brought up from the Praga district of Warsaw received a great ovation from the populace and distinguished themselves in night attacks in the forest of Molchidlovsk, taking many prisoners. The fighting in this district has been determined. The heaviest fighting is not a point south of Przemysl."
