Black Rod may choose to select. Lord Stanley as usual was surrounded by the judges of the Supreme Court in their scarlet robes and the representatives of the militia in their gay attire. The scene was a pretty one indeed as Her Majesty's representative delivered the speech, first in English and then in French, to the faithful Commons at the bar of the chamber. Returning to the Commons the House adjourned until 3 to-morrow, when the discussion on the to-morrow, when the discussion on the address will take place. Outside the buildings there was an immense gathering, and the occupants of the Vice Regal carriage were cheered on their way to and from Rideau Hall.

Princess Louise Dragoon Guards supplied an escort to His Excellency and the Gov-ernor General's Foot Guards provided a guard of honor. The weather was excel-lent.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE. Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate :

Gentlemen of the House of Commons : Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I am glad to welcome you to the duties of the first essaton of a new Parliament, which I hope will be memorable for size deliberations and for measures at apted to the progress and develop-ment of the Dominion. The session in which you are assembled has opened auspiciously for the industries of ur people. Let us hope that their labors may be crowned with fruitful re-turns from land and sea and that the great resources of Canada may continue to reward the toil and enter; rise of its inhabit ants. BECUPROUTY NEOPLET toll and enter rise of its inhabit ants. RECIPROCITY NEGOTIATIONS My advisors, availing themsolves of opportuni-tions which were presented in the closine months of last year caused to be shown the willingness of the fovernment of Canada to join in making efforts for the extension and development of the trade between the Republic and the Domin-ion, as well as for the friendly adjustment of those matters of an international oharacter which remain unsettled. I am pleased to say that these representations have resulted in an assurance that in October next the Government of the United States will be propared to enter on a conference to consider the best measus of arriving at a tractical solution of these im-portant questions. The papers reling to thises circumstances, and in the hope that the proju-for the present season, the principal provisions of the United States the schedendy of extending, for the present season, the principal provisions of the Consider the expediency of extending. THE CATTLE TRADE. A disposition having hear manifered in the

THE CATTLE TRADE.

THE CATTLE TRADE. A disposition having been manifested in the United Kingdom to impose on sea-going ships engaged in the extile trade increased eafeguards for life and greater restrictions against improper for life and greater restrictions against improper treatment, a careful inquiry has been made as to the incidents of that trade in so far as this country is concerned. While I am glad to learn that our shipping is free from reproach in that regard, your attention will be invited to a meas-ure which will remove all reasonable apprehen-sion of abuses arising in the future in connec-tion with so important a branch of our commerce. with great interest to the speech of Mr. Laurier. It was characterized for its elo-

JURISDICTION OF MARITIME COURTS.

The series of th regult of the late election it was Mr. Laurier. The certainty which he had in day. Mr. Laurier knew perfectly well that the propriety or impropriety of the dissolution was not to be discussed by the House. The prerogative of the Crown was admitted. Of course where dissolution was threatened, and Parliament was sitting, there could he a remoustrance against the ibunals. CRIMINAL LAW CODE.

A code of criminal law has been prepared in order that that branch of our jurisprudence may be simplified and improved, to which your best attention is invited.

was threatened, and l'arliament was sitting, there could be a remonstrance against the proposal, but when once prorogation had taken place, the prerogative of the Orown was admitted without remark. The whole MISCELLANEOUS MEASURES. Measures relating to the foreshores of the Dominion and to the obstruction of its navigable waters will be submitted to you and you will also be asked to consider amendments to the acts relating to the Northwest Territories, to the Machequer Court Act and to the acts relating to the tradesmarks.

THE FINANCES.

THE SEVENTI PARLIAMENT The sevent provided by the friends and relatives of Members of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn who spoke of them and in favor of the galleries were drawn and relatives of Members of the friends of the source for the mathemation densities the source for the mathemation densities the source of asking between the source of asking be One." This clever essay concerning "Men Who Are Not in Love" is condensed from the Young Ladies' Fashion Basar: "I would give anything in the world to know whether he is in earnest or not," is the thought that passes through the minds of most young girls when they have received a good many calls from some handsome beau ideal who seems to just suit their fancy. "But how can I ever find out?" they ory, despairingly. Let me tell you, my dear, how to discorn whether a young man is really attracted whether a young man is really attracted toward you or not. When a young man has to be urged to call on you-when you have to make oppor-tunities to see him, or find excuses to write to him, depend upon it you are having your trouble for your pains, for believe me, he's not particularly attracted toward you-he's not in lowe.

him to move the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. Corbould, on rising to second the address, expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred on him by the Government in asking him to do so. He noticed in the speech that His Excellency had caused the Government of the United States to by reminded that the Government of Causad not particularly attracted toward you — nes not in love. If he calls irregularly, and not often, he is not troubling himsel! about whether or not any one else may step in and win you from him. Love always makes a man fearful that he may by any elip of destiny lose his treasure, and he nover feels safe until after he he has won the object of his adoration. reminded that the Government of Canada were willing to open negatistions for the extension of our trade relations with that country. Oanada for the last 36 years had country. Canada for the last 36 years had been trying to obtain a satisfactory treaty with the United States. He was aware adoration. When a man is eager to have you invite your neighbor's pretty daughters to help entertain him when he calls he is not in love with you, for the eyes of a lover are shut to all smiles and glances but those of her whom he has called to see. If you are 25 years old, and he is thrown in contact with young girls, and you see his eyes restlessly wandering toward the girl that Canada was very prosperous under the treaty of 1854, so much sothat the Governtreaty of 1854, so much so that the Govern-ment of the United Statesthought it proper to do away with the treaty. Chanda had always been 'coady to enter into a treaty upon the terms of the treaty of 1854, but sil her offers have been refused by the Washington Government upon some preeyes restlessly wandering toward the girl of 16 summers, you may know then at once that however bright and witty you text or pretence. Mr. Laurier congratuated the gentlemen for the ability with which they

arr. Laurier congratulated the hon-gentlemen for the ability with which they had moved and seconded the address. While he approved of the manner of their speeches, he regretted thit he could not endorse the matter. It had been said that in former years speeches from the I hrone were characterized as shining chiefly because of omissions. The present speech bristled with omissions. So far there had never been any explanation from re-eponsible Ministers as to why Parliament had been dissolved. The Speech from the Throne gave no intimation of these reasons, and no reference was made to the repeal of the Franchise Art, the useless-ness of which had been demonstrated, since the election could be held without a revision of the voters' list. He failed to a revision of the voters' list. He failed to see any reference to the amendment to the electoral law so as to prevent the out-rageous frauds which had characterized the late election, or any reference to the conveyance of Canadian mails to Europe. For the kst forty years our mails had been carded in Canadian bo toms. To day the mails of this loyal country were carded through the United States to the city of New York. He concunced the Postmaster-General as a traitor, whether veiled or unveiled, he could not say, but he deponced him to all loyal men and true. (Laughter and ap-plause.) a revision of the voters' list. He failed to

"The man who comes one minute late is no

Dutch Courtship.

In certain parts of Holland, when s young man thinks he has found his affinity young man thinks he has found his affinity, it is catedomary for him to ask for a match to light his cigar at the door of the be-loved one's house. This little subterfuge is intended to arouse the parents of the girl to the fact that something is in the wind.

may be he is not for you. A gentleman should do all the wooing

LINES FOR LOVERS

One."

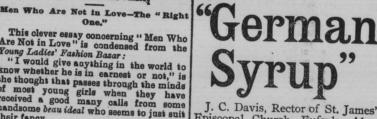

When a young man has to be urged to

If a second call with a similar object is Sir John Macdonald said he had listened made soon afterwards, no doubt is left of the young man's intentions, and the parents proceed to investigate the young Laurier. It was characterized for its elo-quonce, felicity of language, and happiness of expression, but there was a tone of bitterness and exasperation not usual in bis speeches. If there ever was a party disappointed, if there ever was an hon. member or public man disappointed in the result of the late election it was Mr. Lanvier. The certainty which he had in parents proceed to investigate the young man's character and antecedents, with a view of accertaining his eligibility as a member of the family. When he calls the third time, always for a match to light his oigar, they are prepared to give him an Inswer. If his suit is regarded with favor, he is politely requested to step inside for the first time, and is served with a light. If he is not accepted, he is refused a light, and the door is shut in his face without further

But, having prepared for this conting. But, having prepared for this conting-ency, the downcast suitor will, in all pro-bability, light his weed with a match from his own box, and walk away musing on the transitory nature of all earthly things. When the accepted suitor is invited to enter the house, he, as a matter of course, inform the parents which of their dense informs the parents which of their daugh informs the parents which of their daugn-ters has captivated his fancy. When this is settled, the young man steps forward, and they join hands. While the engagement is by no means a sould fact even at this important stage, yet it is intend as a truth that when, on the cocaeven at this important stage, yet it is stated as a truth that when, on the occa-sion of the young man's third visit, his inamorata has offered him a second cigar, and he has smoked it in their house, the engagement never has been cancelled.

Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala .: My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Bo-

An Episcopal schee's German Syrup. I can recom-Rector. mend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these longstanding cases that Boschee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this.

J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn., writes: I always use German Syrup for a Cold on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it-far less a superior.

G. G. GREEN, Sole Man'fr, Woodbury, N.J.

A Toronto Street Scene.

A genteman should do all the wooing, for, though he may come to see a girl once or twice, who plainly shows "she'd like to have him." he never comes the third time, for correctly it has been said that— "Don " in Toronto Saturday Night : In my walks this fine weather I occasionally meet a young and very handsome married "When a woman throws herself at a man's head. She'll soon find herself at his feet." meet a young and very bandsome married woman in company with a man who is neither her husband nor a gentleman. He bends over her and she gazes up at him in a very confidential way while they stroll along, as if anxious not to be overheard. I do not know how the husband feels about it, but I have such therough confidence in her inste scater For if the girl has to make advances the man is not in love. When a man is remiss in his attentions he is not in love. When he negleots to perform any little act of kindness that falls in his way he is not in love. When he puts off his engagements he is husband feels about it, but I have now the husband feels about it, but I have such thorough confidence in her innate goodness and honesty that I wish that I were her mother for about fitteen or twenty minutes and thereby privileged to give her a talking to and the other maternal etceteras. I have heard half a dozen people mention the matter, not one of them said a word against her, but when they spoke of her husband they wondered what he was thinking about. I cannot help doing some wondering myself. Now no woman has a right to do anything to cause her husband to be wondered at or sneered at. She is the custodian of his houor. Even if he is perfectly satisfied to permit the companionship which is creating not in love. Of course, in urgent cases, he may not be able to keep it, but if it is at all possible, word should always be sent, or he cannot be called in love with you. As Rosalind says in "As You Like It": honor. Even if he is perfectly satisfied to permit the companionship which is creating remark, his kindness and faith deserve a better reward than they are receiving. Some day she will hear some orusel and heart physics which are an area of the Some day she will hear some oruel and hears pieroing criticism from an angry or envicus friend. What is worse, her hueband will hear something that will make him tremble with rage and sorrow, and ho will hear it from somebody who will probably make it look and sound as nasty as possible. Probably he will be twitted with it by a tipsy companion at the club. Greek Godl Probably he will be twitted with it by a tipsy companion at the club. Great God! how wounding it will be to them both ! Then why should this pretty goose play with the fox and arrange for misery if not a matrimonial estrangement? The things that are said may be underserved, yet when the aroux of resentment openes upon her that are said may be underserved, yet when the agony of resentment comes upon her whe cannot say that she has been without fault. And then, women are but women, weak and foolish often, and men are but men, masterful and villatious often, and the end of it all may be much worse than even that which I have suggested.

THE MAYOR AND THE ORGAN GRINDERS.

He Gives Advice to English Girls Who Have Married Them.

Mayor MoShane this morning gave two young English girls who have married Italian organ grinders a severe reprimand for marrying into what he termed slavery. Three Italians, with two of their wives, English girls, called to get a reduction of their license, which is $50. The mayor, after eyeing the women, said : "You're not Italians?"

"No," replied the tallest. "We are English." "Then how did you come to marry the

Italians ? '

"Anen Now and you come to marry these Italians?" "We met them on the boat coming over," was the answer. "And you married them ?" "In Quebec," said one. "Can't you do any better than grind organs? Could your husbands not do any better? It is terrible to encourage you. Could you not induce your husband to do something else and you go and keep house? This organ grinding business is becoming a regular nuisance. These Italians ought to work like other people. It is a pity to see young women like you grinding organs." The Mayor next turned upon one of the men: "Would it not be better for you to go and work?" he asked. "But organ grinding is my trade," was

"But organ grinding is my trade," was

"But organ grinding is my trade," was the answer. "Are you aware that your trade is a nuisance?" the Mayor asked. Then addressing the women again the Mayor said : "It is a pity for women to marry men to enslave them. In England women are not married to slavery, and why did you marry into slavery in this country? There was no need for it. I would rather try and get work for the men.

men. "Make your husband support you at home, and do not go organ grinding any more," said the Mayor as he signed an order to have their license reduced from $50 to $25.—Montreal Star.

Pensive and Expensive.

Pensive and Expensive. Many a woman shrinks from consulting a physician about functional derangements and weakness, and prefers to suffer in eilence. She is sad and pensive, and her neglect of her ailments will prove expensive. It may cost her her life. One of the most skilfal physicians of the day, who has had a vast experience in curing diseases peculiar to women, has prepared a remedy which is of inestimable aid to them. We refer to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the only remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses Dr. Flerce's revolve rescription, she only remedy for woman's peculiar weaknessees and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded.

A Yellow Summer.

We all know that last summer was a white summer. The girls affected white costumes even to shoes and gloves, and to our expense we know that only white flan-nel suits and shirts were the correct things for man. A lady who says she knows all about it.

and who certainly should, assures me that this is to be a yellow summer in the same way.

For a convincing proof she points to any of the shop windows.

The Czar of Russia is more than six feet tall and has the shoulders, arms and thighs of an athlete. So great is the strength of his hands that he can twist a horseehoe with ease. He is a magnificent horseman, a thoroughly trained soldier and an accomplished linguist, speaking seven modern languages besides Russian. He works hard and is out of bed from 6 in the morning till 10 at night. Stimu-lants and narcotics are, however, gradually undermining his strength. undermining his strength.

THE FINANCES. Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The accounts for the past year will be sub-mitted to you. The revenue, after providing for the ervices to which you appropriated it, has left a surp us for the works which you designed to be carried on by capital exp-nditure. The estimates for the coming year will be laid before you at an early date.

BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN. Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I pray that in the consideration of these mat-ters and in the performance of all the labors which will devolve upon you, your deliberations may be divinely aided, and that your windom and patriotism may enlarge the prosperity of the Dominion and promote in every way the well-being of its people.

Mr. Speaker laid on the table the certifithe election of Mr. Savard for cate of Chio outimi.

Mr. Hazen, on rising to move the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, oraved the indulgence of the House as a young and inexperienced member. It was pleasing to know that the season had opened anapiciously, and that the prospects of the farmers were good. The policy of the Government had added wonderfully to the growth of the country and its fame Mr. Hazen, on rising to move the address of the farmers were good. The policy of the Government had added wonderfully to the growth of the country and its fame abroad. It was pleasing to know that the advisors of Her Majesty had reminded the neighboring Republic of her willingness to join with them in developing trade between the two countries. (Hear, hear.) In doing this the Government had been simply following out the policy they initiated in '79. It must be gratifying to the Honee to know that the time had been fixed when the conference would be held for the purpose of amicably dealing with all the matters in dispute. That conference would be awaited with great interest by the people of the continent. He would content himself with expressing the opinion that when the accounts of the past opinion that when the accounts of the past year were laid before the House it would opinion that when the accounts of the past year were laid before the House it would be found that our finances are in a healthy condition. There was a surplus to be carried to capital account, and now that the great question of trunk lines and canals had been completed, and that the greatest expenditure for public works had been made that would probably have to beynade for half a century, the increase of expindi-tures in future years would not be more than the increase of population would bear without burdening the taxpayers of the country. By one occupying a prominent position uniry taken place, the prerogative of the Orown was admitted withou remark. The whole tenor of modern Parliamentary discipline was that an appeal to the people was always in order. Mr. Laurier had stated that his (Sir John's) lacguage at Halifax was unfriendly and impolitio to the Gov-ernment of the United States. He ad-hered to every word he had said. He said the United States was a great nation, and will be a great nation, but he had spoken in the same sense as the best and ablest and most patriotio ofizians in the United States, whose citizens were a patriotic people, had to come through difficulties incidental to all young democracies. The United States was in great dauger, and the people were writing and using their best intelleots for the purpse of freeing the nation of the dangers of socialiem, anarchism, atheism, and Canada was not beset by any of these dangers. He had nothing to take back of what he had said at Halifax, and he could states proved of great men in the United States. He could only say with tell Mr. Laurier that he had had the sym-pathy and support of great men in the United States. He could only say with respect to the statement that it was a Pyrchic victory that the Conservative party were satisfied. He ought to be satis-fied, because at the end of this Parliament, if he lived, he would be 82 years of age, and he could only say that we were going to last for that time unless we dissolved. He complimented the mover and second ref complimented the mover and seconder of the resolution.

Thereby Hangs a Tale.

'And so, from hour to hour, we ripe and ripe. And then, from hour to hour, we rot and rot, And thereby hangs a tale."

And thereby hangs a tale." And thereby hangs a tale." And truly," 'is a tale of woe," of one who had Catarrh in the Head, for many years, and who really had been "rotting," from hour to hour, until Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy came to his notice. He used it at first with alight signs of rollef, but he per-sisted until a permanent cure was effected, and the world was again pleasant to live in. From his awfal auffering he was set free by the expenditure of a few dollars in that incomparable remedy.

Butter-Fingers in Baseball.

Boston Herald : None of the New York baseballists appear to have the grip.

at would probably have to be made a century, the increase of expandi-future years would not be more increase of population would bear burdening the taxpayers of the grains of camphor in twenty minims in the political life of this (Sir Richard Cartwright), the of the Maritime Provinces

Not a Miracle, Now.

Until recently Consumption was con-sidered inourable, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not inourable. The cure of Consumption is not incurable. The cure of Consumption is not a miracle, now. Dr Pierce's Golden Meda miracle, now. Dr Pierce's Golden Med-ical Discovery will cure it, if taken in time and given a fair trial. This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state when other means have failed. Thousands gratefully testify to this. It is the most gratefully testify to this. It is the most presently sestily to this. It is the most potent sonio, or strength restorer, alterative, or blco1-cleanser, and nutritive, or flesh-builder, known to medical science. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, "Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, t is an unequaled remedy.

The Honors of War.

The Honors of War. Philadelphia Record : "War is murder," says James Russell Lowell, in the "Bigo-low Papers"; and certainly the war which is now being waged in Chili is, of any con-flict of modern times, the most savage and horrible. Every instinct of humanity seems to have been blotted out; rapine and plunder are finishing what sword and bullet began, and women and children are treated as if they were in the hands of the most brutalized denizens of Africa. It will evi-dently be many years before the Chilians shall again be fit to come within the pale of civilization.

In one of his lectures at Yale last week Dr. Stalker told of a quaint record kept in a Scottish town concerning some of its ministers, which reads as follows: "One was a man but not a minister, the next was a minister but not a man, and the third neither a man nor a minister."—Congrega-

It was all Right. Epoch : He-You are N. G., Maria. She-What do you mean ? He-Nice girl. Ske-Oh !

A Wise Lad. Harper's Young People : "Johnny, do you know your alphabet ?" "Yee."

"What letter comes after B ?" "Oh, lots of 'em. Twenty-four alto gether."

Wild ginseng, the root to which the Chinese apotheoary attributes so many virtues, is of almost priceless value, being worth more than its weight in gold. It is found in Corea, and forms part of the annual tribute paid by the King of that nation to the Emperor of China.

The advantage of this is that we may save perhaps fifteen appeals and serve the same purpose as would be served by each of these. The provisions of the statute are that proper counsel for those interested should have the opportunity to appear for

-Have men more pride than women? Joe Howard says that "it is an interesting race question raised by the fact that while white women very often marry black men it is very rare that a white man marries a black woman."

THOUSANDS OF BOTTLES

When I say Cure I do not a merely to stop them for a time, and a RADICA CURE. I have made the disease of F dife-long study. I warrant my remedy to Cure d is no reason for not now receiving a cure. See of my infallible Remedy. Girs Express trial, and it will cure you. Address - M. G. KOO DELAIDE STREET, 'OORONTO.

a life-long study. I warrant my ren failed is no reason for not now receiving

reason

GIVEN AWAY YEARLY.