LYNDHURST, March 4th 1896

Mr. Fredenburgh's Card.

To the Electors of South Leeds.

GENTLEMEN.—It having been rumored that I intended withdrawing from the present political contest, I wish to state positively, that having placed myself in the hands of my friends, I intend to remain in the field till the last vote is polled.

At my age I would be loth to undertake a fight, did I not, as a Canadian, believe it to be the duty of every patriotic citizen to do all that in him lies, to wrest the management of affairs from the hands of those who have so abused their trust. Millions of our money have been ruthlessly squandered in such indefensible jobs as the Tay Canal, the Curran Bridge, the Galopas rapids, and scores of others that might be mentioned, while the people have been taxed beyond what they are able to bear in order to provide funds for such expenditures. If as a nation we are to prosper, we must have rigid economy in the management of affairs.

Being a farmer myself, I will favor a readjustment of the tariff so that while it provides revenue sufficient for running the business of the country on an honest and economical basis, it will bear as lightly as possible on the farming community who form the great majority of the taxpayers of the country. The readjustment of the tariff should be made so as to stimulate our manufacturing industries by making as far as possible a reciprocity on a fair and equitable basis with all countries, particularly the United States.

The Manitoba School question has been thrust into Federal politics by the Conservative party, where it should never have reached. Believing the minority have a grievance I believe the settlement of this grievance can never be reached by a coercive policy, but that by approaching the matter in a conciliatory and friendly spirit, what ever grievances the minority may have ever grievances the majority will be remedied by the Provincial government, which is the only way a settlement permanent and satisfactory to majority and minority alike can be reached.

I appeal for your support on the grounds of economical and honest government, reduced expenditure, a readjustment of the tariff, a reduction of duty on British goods, enlarged markets for Canadian produce, equal rights to all of creed or race. I will not be able to meet all, but expect to hold meetings throughout the riding and lay my views further before you.

Again appealing to you for your support, and trusting that the result of the contest, may be for the good of our common country.

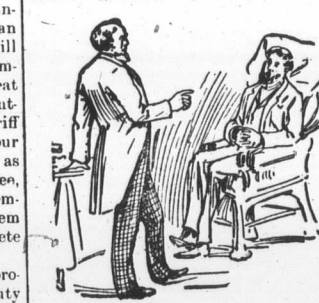

Believe me, gentlemen,
Yours truly,
W. H. FREDENBURGH.

A New Lease of Life.

HOW A CUMBERLAND CO., N.S. MAN
OBTAINED IT.

A Sufferer From Acute Dyspepsia and a Complication of Troubles Following an Attack of La Grippe—He Was forced to Quit Business and Was Hopelessly Discouraged When Help Came.

From the Amherst, N.S., Sentinel.
Mr. Chas. Tucker, who lives about two miles from Lockport, is one of the best known men in that section. He is engaged in business as lobster packer, and dealer in flour and salt, and in addition has a fine farm. During the past three years Mr. Tucker has been an almost constant invalid, being victim of a complication of troubles following a severe attack of la grippe. Recently he has been restored to his old time health, and having learned that he gave the entire credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, concerning which so much has been said through the press, a reporter interviewed him in the matter, and was cheerfully given his story for publication. Mr. Tucker said:—"About four years ago I had severe attack of la grippe, which left me in a fearful condition. I had for a number of years before this attack been a sufferer from dyspepsia, but following la grippe it took a more acute form and to add to my distress my liver appeared not to perform its usual functions, and my heart troubled me greatly, and there were as well other complications which baffled the skill of four doctors whom I successively called in in the hope of regaining my health. From the knees down my legs were as cold as ice; my bowels would bloat and I suffered great pain. My case went from bad to worse despite the medical treatment I was undergoing and at last I got so bad that I was forced to give up business. I could hardly eat anything, got but little sleep at night, and as you will readily understand my condition became one of despair. My father urged me several times to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, but I was so discouraged that I had no further faith left in any medicine. However, more to please him than from the hope of beneficial results, I began the use of Pink Pills. The first beneficial effects I found was that the warth and natural feeling began to return to my limbs, my bowels ceased to bloat, and with the continued use of the pills my appetite returned. I slept soundly at night, and the action of the heart again became normal. I continued taking the Pink Pills until I had used in all fifteen boxes, and I have not felt better in years than I do now. I did some particularly hard work last fall, and was able to stand it with a strength and vigor which surprised me. I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, not only a wonderful medicine, but also in the light of what my other treatment cost, the least expensive medicine in the world, and I strongly recommend Pink Pills to all in need of medicine." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly upon the blood and nerves, building them and thus driving disease from the system. There is no trouble due to either of these causes which Pink Pills will not cure, and in hundreds of cases they have restored patients to health after all other remedies had failed. Ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and take nothing else. The genuine are always enclosed in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." May be had from all dealers, or sent post paid on receipt of 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dandelion Wine.
1 quart dandelion blossoms, 4 quarts boiling water, 1 pound white sugar, 3 lemons, 3 oranges, 3 tablespoons yeast. Pour boiling water on the blossoms and let stand on the back of the stove 24 hours. Slice lemons and oranges, (take out the seeds), put on sugar and let stand overnight. The next day strain blossoms and pour over the sugar. Put in yeast and let stand 5 or 6 days, then strain. Settle a day, then bottle. Pack the dandelions, as many as possible, in a quart.

PREPARED BY PILLOWS FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

A Terrible Experience With Heart Disease, Yet Cured by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart.

To our largest sympathies well out to those who suffer from heart disease! It comes so suddenly, and its symptoms are so distressing that the patient is left in a state of despair. The case of Mr. L. W. Law, of Toronto Junction, Ont., who was unable to lie down in bed for eighteen months owing to smothering spells and palpitations, is by no means exceptional. Who would have thought the case could be cured, and yet one bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart removed trouble in this case. It gives such speedy relief, that even where the symptoms are less dangerous, it ought at once to be taken as a means of driving this terrible disease from the system. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

Dread Kidney Disease Quickly Removed.

To even bolder the many words of praise written of South American Kidney Cure would consume large newspaper space. But take at random a few: "Adam Super, Dark's Falls, Ont.: 'One bottle of South American Kidney Cure convinced me of its great worth.' Michael McMullen, Chesley, Ont.: 'I procured one bottle of South American Kidney Cure, and taking it according to directions got immediate relief.' D. J. Locke, Sherbrooke, Que.: 'I spent over $100 for treatment, but never relief until I began the use of South American Kidney Cure.' Rev. James Murrelock, St. John, N.B.: 'I have received one hundred dollars worth of good from one bottle of South American Kidney Cure.' Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

THE LIGHTHOUSE LIGHT.

(Adapted by our Hard Island Correspondent.)
The winds came howling down from the north, like a hungry wolf for prey.

The lighthouse beam was shining forth in the sinking face of the day.
And the snow-fakes drifted near and far.
Till the last was wholly fanned,
And the lighthouse lamp, a golden star,
Flashed over the waves' white foam.

In the room at the foot of the lighthouse,
Lay mother and babe asleep,
And the little maid Gretchen was by them there,
A restless watch to keep.

There were only the three on the lighthouse ledge,
For the father had trimmed the lamp
And set it burning, weary while,
In the morning's dusk and damp.

"Long before night I'll be back," he said,
And his white sail slipped away.
Away and away to the mainland sped,
But it came not home that day.

The mother stirred on her pillow's space,
And moaned in pain and fear,
Then looked at her little daughter's face,
Through the blur of a starting tear.

"Darling," she whispered, "a step at a time;
Up the tower, I'll be with you soon.
And you are so laddie strong and bold,
My little one, don't you cry."

"But up! there's the lamp to feed,
Or its flame will die in the dark.
The light of our life's ark."
And she rose and went to the stair.

"I'll go," said Gretchen, "a step at a time;
And the dawn of a bright new day.
There was joy in the hearts of the fisher folk,
And we learned to do as I told."

Then Gretchen up to the top of the tower,
Out the door, and the wind was there,
Went slowly and steadily that hour,
The light of her life's ark.

She fed the lamp and she trimmed it well,
And its clear light-glowed afar.
And its clear light-glowed afar,
To warn of rocks and of rocks to tell.

There are many boats come sailing in,
All safe and sound to the land,
Of the many who were helped to win
By our island Mission Hand.

TERREBLE RHEUMATIC PAINS.

Less Their Sway After Using South American Rheumatic Cure.

The pain and suffering caused by rheumatism is indescribable in language. The bent back, the crippled limbs, the intense neuralgia pains that are caused by this trouble almost drive the victims to despair. The blessing comes to those who have learned of South American Rheumatic Cure, which is simply marvellous in its effects, curing desperate cases in from one to three days.

About some things there is no certainty, but of the certain cure that comes from South American Rheumatic Cure there is no doubt. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

FAIRFIELD EAST.

(Too late for last issue.)
SATURDAY, May 9.—It is so long since we have heard anything from the Fairfield correspondents that we thought they were away, but happily they are alive and well.

The farmers are all busy with their spring work. Although some land is very wet as yet, it will soon be fit for working.

Mr. Andrew Fairbairn, who has been quite ill for a few weeks, we are glad to say is much better.

We think the pathmaster, whoever he is, had better look after the bridges a little better, before some serious accident occurs.

There has arrived at Mr. R. J. Sturgeon's a little girl. They say she has come to stay.

A very sad death occurred in our neighborhood on the 6th inst. On getting up in the morning the family found two bright youths, only four days old, dead in their little bed. Though they were only pigs, they remind one somewhat of the babes in the woods.

Mr. Mort Manhard, the new partner in our cheese factory, is doing a rushing business.

Errata.
I wish to correct two or three statements of my own, which appeared in last week's issue.

Mr. R. B. McGregor's Frisian Holstein herd consists of 15 milkers, nine of which are one and two year-old heifers, and milk over 500 lbs a day.

Mrs. McGregor thinks highly of the cream grinder, (not separator) a simple device that enables farmers who set their milk to compete favorably with the creamery make, as it grinds the white, dry cream, causing it to disappear and color properly. The process is easy and well up with the times. I will try to bring instructions to make it.

The New York Tribune and other leading papers express regret that this state legislature omitted to get the bill through making it optional for towns (there are no townships here) to authorize investments in road graders and round. It was passed over through neglect, not opposition.

Election is at the door, you may say. McKinley, without question, will be the next president, which means fare-well to tariff amendments. Many of our parliamentary nominees promise much in this line. Remember, its fulfillment lies beyond their ken, in a dim and hazy future.

W.S.H.

On account of funds accumulating quickly, will lend money on real estate at the very lowest rate—$12,000 on hand now. Mortgages also purchased.
