The practical side of science is reflected in

A monthly publication of inestimable value to the student of every day scientific problems, the mechanic, the industrial expert, the manufacturer, the inventor—in fact, to every wide-awake person who hopes to better his condition by using his brains. The inventor, especially, will find in The Patent Record a guide, philosopher and friend. Nothing of importance escapes the vigilant eyes of its corps of expert editors. Everything is presented in clean, concise fashion, so that the busiest may take time to read and comprehend. The scientific and industrial progress of the age is accurately mirrored in the columns of The Patent Record, and it is the only publication in the country that prints the official news of the U. S. Patent Office and the latest developments in the field of invention without fear or favor.

THAT AWFUL DEPRESSION

Which Mrs. Greenery experienced is but the story that thousands could tell of their sufferings from Dyspepsia. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets is the panacea.
"I have proved Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets to be the only effective remedy for my dyspepsia. I have used most everything I could hear of, but these tablets 'touch the spot' and take away the awful depression and distress in almost quicker time than it takes to tell it. You may publish this that all sufferers from Indigestion and Dyspepsia may find the relief I did."
Mrs. M. Greenery, 51 Alice St., Toronto.
Sixty tablets, 35 cents.

—The nominations for the Township of Rear Yonge and Escott will be held in the town hall, Athens, on the 30th inst., at 1 o'clock.

—Special services will be conducted in the Baptist church during the week beginning Thursday, Dec. 26th. The public are cordially invited.

—Miss R. Boyce, of Merriekville, and Mrs. J. J. Kerfoot, of Smith's Falls, are in town, having been called here by the death of their father, Mr. S. Boyce.

—Rev. J. C. Sycamore, M. A., of Brockville, will address an open Mission Circle meeting in Plum Hollow Baptist church on Thursday evening. Everybody welcome.

—A boy with a peg leg struck town last week and solicited donations for a cork leg from our charitably inclined citizens, and from appearances his mission was successful.

—A horse belonging to W. W. Cross, proprietor of the Athens Dairy, dropped dead on Main St. while going the rounds on Tuesday morning. This will entail considerable loss to Mr. Cross.

—A very successful trial was made on Tuesday afternoon of the new engine and machinery of the Athens Planing Mill. Quite a number of our citizens were permitted to see the initial start.

—Mr. C. Ross McIntosh, the able and energetic principal of our Model School, was presented with some handsome and useful books by the 1901 Model class just before the breaking up on Friday last.

—SLEIGH RIDE AND XMAS TREE.—On Saturday afternoon next the scholars of the Baptist S.S. will enjoy a sleigh ride which is to be followed immediately on their return by the annual Christmas tree and entertainment.

—The Conservative Association of the township of Rear Yonge and Escott will meet on Saturday evening, at 7 p.m., in the Town Hall, Athens, for the purpose of deciding on the party's action in the coming municipal contest and also the election of officers for the current year. A full attendance is requested.

"DAY and NIGHT" ACHE

The incessant grind of the Kidney Back-ache soothed and cured by South American Kidney Cure—It never fails.

"Kidney Disease affected my back so that I couldn't work at all, and could not sleep for the pain. I used three bottles of South American Kidney Cure, and I can positively add another to the long list of cures that this great remedy claims, for I can work fourteen hours a day now and not feel tired. I had tried other treatments but got no help from them."

—Mr. Kerr, of Elgin, was an Athens visitor during the week.

—A noticeable feature of the raising of the 3rd contingent is the absence of anyone from this section who seems anxious to enlist for his king and country.

—The Delta Methodists are preparing an excellent entertainment to be given on Christmas night in the church there. A first-class time is assured to all who attend. Admission 20c. Everybody attend.

—The Recorder says:—E. A. Geiger, Supt. of the B. & W., had a communication Saturday morning from Russia, asking for rates, time bills, etc., from Brockville to Sault St. Marie, over the B. & W.

—Miss Ethel Slack will sing at the Methodist Christmas Entertainment a beautiful ballad, entitled, "Reminiscences," composed by Mrs. (Dr.) Lillie. This composition is pronounced by competent judges to be a very sweet refrain.

—With the issue of December 12th our cotem., the Kemptville Advance, which is one of the brightest of our exchanges, celebrated its 13th birthday. The Advance is fulfilling its mission and is meeting with deserved success. Congratulations.

—The postal revenue received from the Frankville Post Office for the past year was $276.81. There were 263 money orders issued, aggregating $6,841.08; $554.69 was paid out for orders. This is a satisfactory showing from our neighboring hamlet.

—The Lyndhurst Methodist Sabbath School Christmas Entertainment this year promises to exceed anything in that line before attempted. Outside talent have kindly consented to assist the school at their concert. As all are promised a good time no doubt the entertainment will be largely attended.

—The Belleville Ontario says:—Geo. P. Wight, of Athens, who saw a clipping in the Brockville Recorder that a grasshopper ranch was to be started in the city, has written to the Fisherman's Bait and Hatchery Company here. He says he has a natural grasshopper ranch near the village of Athens, on the Brockville and Westport Railway, 15 miles west of Brockville. He says his ranch has been stocked for the past 20 years, and if the Belleville company cares to deal with him they can do so on very liberal terms.

—The fiftieth anniversary services of the Delta Methodist church will be held (D. V.) on Sunday and Monday, Jan. 5th and 6th, prox. The Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Burwash, Chancellor of Victoria University, will preach in the morning; in the afternoon the annual S. S. Rally will be held at 2 p.m., conducted by the pastor, and in the evening the services will take the form of a platform meeting, and will be addressed by N. L. Massey, B.A., of Athens, and others. On Monday evening the Rev. Dr. Burwash will deliver one of his highly interesting lectures. Admission 25c. Oysters will be served after the lecture in the basement at 10c per plate.

DEATH OF STEPHEN W. BOYCE.

Another resident of Athens passed over to the great majority on Monday last. For some time Mr. Boyce had been suffering from a complication of diseases that baffled the skill of the ablest physicians to even check, and on Monday forenoon he passed peacefully away, fully conscious to the last, at the age of 59 years, 3 months and 6 days. All the members of his family were present with him in his last hours, which afforded him great consolation. His only son, George, who is employed by the Dr. William's Medicine Co. down in the Maritime Provinces, came home in the fall on a short vacation and seeing the poor state of health of his father, remained to assist in his care. Mr. Boyce was born at the family residence near Lyn and for many years has followed the calling of a cheesemaker. He married Rachel Slack, sister of Philip P. Slack, and reared one son, George, and three daughters, Mrs. J. J. Kerfoot, Smith's Falls; Mrs. Chas. Grey, Addison and Miss Rachel, of Merriekville. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition he was universally liked and respected by a large circle of relatives and friends. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church and in politics a strong Liberal. His funeral, which is taking place at 2 p.m. this afternoon (Wednesday), is being largely attended, the services being conducted by the Rev. W. E. Reynolds in the Methodist church.

The members of the Presbyterian S.S. are preparing to give an entertainment and Christmas Tree on the evening of Friday, December 20th. An extensive program of dialogues, drills and recitations is in course of preparation and promises to be highly entertaining. An admission fee of 15c or two for 25c will be charged. Entertainment begins at 7.30. Don't fail to miss this treat of the season.
