THE ACADIAN. WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 23, 1895. Local and Provincial. Don't miss hearing the Cosgrove Concert Co., next Tuesday evening. O. D. Harris' boat has been treated to a new coat of paint which adds greatly to its appearance. The Wolfville editor of the Orchards is recuperating at Blomidon this week after his excessive literary effort. WANTED-500 live men to bring their watches to be repaired, to A. H. Westaver, watchmaker, Wolfville, N. S. Examinations for teachers' licenses are to be held in Kentville next week. We understand there will be a large number of applicants. The man who thinks he will advertise as soon as his business indicates that he can afford to spend money for that purpose, very likely finds that it never reaches that stage. Mr E. Blackadder, agent and lecturer of the Grand Division, S. of T., is to lecture in Port Williams, under the auspices of "Lily of the Valley" Division on Wednesday evening next. We understand that the owners of "Evangeline Beach," at Long Island, intend opening the season there with a grand excursion, which will be held in the near future. Look out for it. London Shrub-the latest drink, &c. a glass at the Drugstore. Mr. Thos. Hutchings, general agent for the Sons of Temperance National Mutual Relief Society, is now in this vicinity in its interests. On Monday evening he paid a visit to Wolfville Division and explained the workings of the society. The Mount Allison University is now under negotiation with Dalhousie Law School, with a view to establishing a course of International Law, and one other branch, which will relieve students of one year of law course at Dalhousie. The summer meeting of the N. S. Dairywomen's Association will be held in Antigonish on Wednesday, July 3rd. Prof. Robertson, of the Experimental farm, Ottawa, Prof. Fayle, of the N. S. Horticultural School, and other well-known agricultural experts, will address the meeting. Shrub shake is elegant, so is Egg Shrub (with cream). The first installment of the genus organ-grinder was in town on Friday last. A galaxy of urchins charmed by the inspiring strains of the "Irish Washerwoman" made quite a procession as they followed the vendor of music about town. We understand Signor Mucian did quite a fair country trade. W. C. Archie, agent of the W. W. Dayton Show, will visit Wolfville in a few days to make arrangements for the great and only Dayton Show. The Show left Boston last week for Nova Scotia, and will visit every town and city in the Province. Now playing towns along the south shore between Yarmouth and Halifax. On Monday last Inspector Gates, of Annapolis, found at the corner of his house a large box filled with waste well soaked, with furs and the following notice: "The first Scott set paper you serve in town it will cost you more than your salary. Remember your property. We are your friends. Don't make us your enemies."

Local and Provincial. English strawberries are now in the market and are quite plentiful. We understand the indications are that the crop will be a large one if there is sufficient rain to prevent them drying up. A Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival will be held on Grounds of the Methodist church, Wolfville, Monday July 1st, at 6 o'clock, to which you are most cordially invited. Ice Cream 10 cents. Strawberries and Cream 10 cents. The steering apparatus for which the promoters of the gasoline launch have been waiting some time, has arrived and will be at once put in position. The boat will probably be launched to-day or to-morrow. If you do not care for "Soda" try a "shake." A quail club is about being formed in Wolfville. The game is rapidly gaining in favor, and about a dozen sets of quails are to be ordered. For the present the playing will be done on the school ground. Dr E. P. Bowles' two horses "Andrew" and "Kingbird" will start in the races at Bridgetown on the first of July. "Kingbird" is in the 3-90 class, and "Andrew" in the 2-35 class. Prof. Crabbe will pilot them. In the bicycle race of Armstrong vs. Shand Bros., which was tried some months ago, before Judge Chipman, at Windsor, judgment was given this week in favor of the plaintiff, Mr E. H. Armstrong, of this town, for $5 damages and all costs. Mr A. H. Westaver, watchmaker, jeweller and engraver, has opened up business in the store next O. D. Harris' and is already meeting with good success. Mr Westaver appears to be a good workman and we would recommend those who require work done in his line to give him a call. It is whispered - That they "got left." That "it" was exchanged for root-beer. That the ice-cream was "no more." That the "ministers" got some later on. That the clerk "knew how." That the older brother "wasn't in in."

A. J. McKenna, D. D. S. At Wolfville Monday and Saturday of every week. Office over F. J. Porter's store. 38 Local and Provincial. The gasoline launch will make a trial trip to Windsor, Monday next, July 1st. We understand that all the leading places of business will be closed on Monday next, July 1st. Subscribers to the Valley Telephone Co., will please remember that the central office, Wolfville, on July 1st, will be open Sunday hours only. Middleton's new paper, the Outlook appears to be in a flourishing condition. The paper is bright and new, well written and well printed; and is a welcome visitor to our table. We congratulate Editor Cox on his success. The sewing circle in connection with Chalmers church, Lower Horton, intend holding a strawberry festival, in aid of the church debt, at Borden's Hall, Grand Pre, on Tuesday, July 2nd. Doors open at 5 p. m. Strawberries, Ice Cream and other refreshments will be provided. I have now on hand 150 tons best Hard Coal in all sizes, and will cheerfully give all orders my careful attention. F. W. WOODMAN. Rev. Joseph Hale, is to be the new Methodist minister here. Mr Hale was last stationed at Bear River. During his residence here Rev. Mr Gronlund has made many friends who, while regretting his departure from Wolfville will join in wishing him a continued success in his new field. The Free Baptists of Nova Scotia held their quarterly meeting at Canisling last week. On Sabbath three services were held at their church. Mr McNinch, of Clark's Harbor, preached in the morning, and Mr Porter, of Shelburne Co., preached at the Baptist church in the evening. A number of delegates were present from Yarmouth and Shelburne Counties. The steamer purchased on the other side by the D. A. Railway, has arrived at Digby, and will go on the route between St. John and Digby early in July. She will make a double daily trip in close connection with the "Flying Blinnose" thus giving the C. P. R. a rapid means of reaching Halifax over the D. A. R., in addition to its present I. C. R. connection. She is called the Prince Rupert, and is capable of steaming over 18 knots an hour. The fine weather for the past two or three weeks has been taken advantage of by a number of private parties, to enjoy outings at Long Island, Gasperaux and various other places. Among this number was the Y. I. L. S., which held its picnic on the banks of the Gasperaux river, a short time ago. This is, we understand, a society lately formed by a number of the literary young ladies of Wolfville, with a view to becoming better acquainted with some of the leading English authors.

Born. KENNEBEC--At Wolfville, July 21st, to Dr. and Mrs Keirstead, a son. CIVIL SERVICE STUDENTS Can join the class, preparing for the November exam., at and time at Whiston & Frazee's COLLEGE. For rates of tuition and conditions of Free Scholarship visit to S. E. WHISTON, 95 Barrington St., Halifax, N. S.
