

Last Opportunity, 1919.

THE SPRINGDALE STREET COMMERCIAL, both in EVENING and DAY CLASSES will be open and in full swing next Wednesday, October 1st, 9.30 a.m., and 7.30 p.m. All who desire preparation for a good paying position or promotion at Christmas when the rush of business will commence should lose no time in attending.

Bigger demand than ever. Already we have several calls we cannot fill for Stenographers and Bookkeepers: many of our old students are leading merchants and bookkeepers. A list of those placed last year was published recently in the local papers, as references, with letters of appreciation—proofs of our success in this work. Apply to us for positions of office help desired.

We are equipped better than ever with fourteen more typewriters, dictaphone outfits, etc., additional teachers for each class, and special lecturers as required. Personal attention in Commercial and Technical subjects.

An expert and certificated teacher of the latest all-finger Touch Typing, Speed Shorthand and Dictaphone methods, viz.: Miss E. G. Freeman, of Rose L. Fritz Champion Typists School, is instructor in the stenographic department.

Young men and young women, have something to show for your time spent this winter. Attend the Classes without delay and you will advance quickly. THE TERMS ARE as usual: $10.00 per quarter, payable on entering so that the best benefit can be afforded. You gain the advantages of a thorough training for business, and enjoy, as a result, a good salary, with success, independence and the good things of life that belong to those who take advantage of their opportunity. Students admitted from any part of the country. Board provided in good homes in the city.

This is the last quarter, 1919—don't let it be a lost one. Attend at once, so as to get the full benefit. It is the opportunity of your lifetime which taken at the flood "leads on to fortune."

Office entrance corner Gilbert and Springdale Streets.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT

The attendance at the C. C. C. Band Concert in the Casino last night was rather small, owing to various counter attractions. This was the first of two concerts the band had arranged to give indoors, as the weather is now becoming unfavorable for open-air performances. The programme was as follows:

March, "The Directorate"—Band.
Song—Madame Timmons-Eadie.
One-Step, "Oh Frenchy"—Band.
Violin Solo—Mr. Eadie.
Waltz, "Mighty Lak'a Rose"—Band.
Song—Mr. W. Andelin.
Fox-Trot, "Ja-Da"—Band.
Two-Step, "Mickey"—Band.
Selection, "Hunting Chorus"—Band.
Song—Carl Trapnell.

A Characteristic Trombone Smear, "Trombonology"—Band.
March, "Laurentian," "Banks of Newfoundland," "God Save the King"—Band.

The violin solo by Mr. Eadie also was splendidly received, while the items by the Band added to the high reputation already achieved by Capt. Bulley and his associates, being perfectly rendered. The second concert will be given on Friday night.

GIVE THE JOBS TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

Mr. F. J. Doyle, the Returning Officer for St. John's West, is now very busy in the work of engaging polling stations in the various wards of his Division and has applications coming to him daily for positions as Deputy Returning Officers and Poll Clerks for the pending general election. Returned Soldiers should be given the preference in these jobs.

VETERAN BRITISH SOLDIER

Private M. Walsh, late of the British Army and who was attached to the R.A.M.C., is now engaged at the Empire Barracks, this city, as Surgeon's Assistant and male nurse work for which he is eminently fitted. Pte. Walsh who enlisted in the British Army at Aldershot, England in 1915, went through the campaign, was wounded in the breast after being gassed and gave excellent service as a soldier and later as a stretcher bearer. He was many months in Hospital and being unfitted for further active service was engaged as Surgeon's Assistant in various English Hospitals, holding credentials and recommendations from eminent Army physicians, all testifying to his ability. He is a son of Mr. Thos. Walsh of Harvey & Co's. Tub Factory, and brother of Pte. Geo. Walsh of "Ours."

ANOTHER OFFICER ARRIVES

Lieut. G. R. Burt of "Ours," son of Mr. Joshua Burt of Jesse Whiteway's Store, arrived here today by the express from England. Lieut. Burt who is accompanied by his wife, went through all the phases of the great campaign with the brave boys of the N. Newfoundland Regiment and by his bravery and intrepidity won deserved promotion. Both he and Mrs. Burt are enjoying excellent health and were given a warm welcome on arrival.

THE "SUSU'S" PASSENGERS

The following passengers arrived here on the Susu from the Northward—Miss K. House, Mrs. Winsor, Rev. F. W. Moulton, Adj. and Mrs. Stains busy and child, Adj. and Mrs. Woolfrey and child, Mrs. J. Stanley, Mrs. A. Taylor, Mrs. J. Carter, Mrs. Guest, Mr. Guest, Miss S. Guy, Miss W. McGrath.

RAILROAD IN TWO SECTIONS

Commencing today the Reid Nfld. Co's. railway system has been divided into two sections, the Eastern comprising that portion of the line running from Bishop's Falls to St. John's and the Western, that going to Port aux Basques from Bishop Falls. Mr. George Cobb is in charge of the Western division, and Mr. Herbert Russell the Eastern. Both are experienced and courteous as well as competent officials, and fully equal to the performance of the responsible duties.

FROM THE SAGONA

The Reid Nfld. Co. had the following despatch from Capt. Parsons of the Sagona today from Holton, via Fogo: "Tuesday, laying at Indian Hr. weather stormy and foggy. Arrived Nain September 25th. Winds from W. to S.W. with fine weather going North. Returning variable winds with bad weather. All floaters returning South well fished. Cape Harrison crews all left for home."

(Sgd.) W. PARSONS.

TWO MEN DROWNED

The Department of Marine and Fisheries received the following message from R. Furneaux, J.P. of Rose Blanche, yesterday afternoon: "James Bond and Albert Bennett, of Petties, were drowned to-day while fishing in a dory. The death was caused by the sea upsetting their dory while overhauling their trawls. Both men were married with families. Will make enquiries."

COURTEOUS OFFICERS ALL

By each trip of the Kyle to and from Sydney many people from this country come and go, and all testify to the kindly offices of Mr. Jas. Pike, the chief steward, Miss Sinnott, the stewardess, Mr. Ryan, purser, and stewards J. Armstrong, J. Glascoe, Walter Bragg and the others. These people vie with each other in the kindly attentions bestowed upon passengers who are loud in praise of the treatment received at their hands.

CURRIE ADMITS DEFEAT

In the editorial notes today Editor Currie says: "Mr. Cheeseman seems to have put his foot in it this time. Mr. Cheeseman's foot is S. J. Foote, the popular candidate for Burin. Currie knows Cheeseman will head the poll, and now admits Foote's election is sure."

ARRIVALS FROM LABRADOR

AN OBLIGING OFFICIAL

The many Newfoundlanders who come and go from North Sydney all testify to the kindly helpful interest taken in them by Mr. Arthur Shano, of St. John's, custodian of His Majesty's mails for years past at this important point. In season or out of season, night or day, Mr. Shano on the arrival of trains or steamers with fellow-countrymen or women on board, goes out of his way to see to their security and comfort and has the gratitude of thousands of the travelling public. He is ably assisted in his official capacity by Mr. G. M. Dutot, also of this city, who is also a well known helper of our people. Mr. Shano took a well-earned holiday on the West Coast last week, and recently was highly complimented by Deputy Colonial Secretary Mews on the excellent work he is doing at Sydney. It is indeed a pleasure to meet such a courteous, affable and obliging public official.

Faithfully yours,
R. HIBBS.

Placentia Team for Liberal Reform

We are pleased to announce that the candidates of the Liberal Reform Party in Placentia will be Mr. J. M. Devine, who has already been referred to, Mr. W. H. Jackman, a brother of the late E. M. Jackman, so long a Member for Placentia, and Mr. Philip Brown, a native of Sound Island, now residing in the city, and very popular throughout the Bay. They are a strong team and will come back victorious after one of the liveliest campaigns in the country.

New Melbourne Backs Friend of Fishermen

(To the Editor)

Dear Sir:—While looking over the Herald I saw where Mr. J. G. Stone arrived here and of the good reception he got. If Mr. Stone got a good reception it was in some office. That was where he spent his time while he was at New Melbourne, and the Union men could not get a chance to speak to him, the men who put him where he is at today. The writer also said that Union men and non-Union men praise him, but I can tell you that there was nobody praising Mr. Stone or any traitor like him. He also said that the voters are more determined to stand by him; but when the time comes for the people to mark their X everybody will see then what the fishermen intend to do.

For myself, I don't see how the voters are going to vote for hard times: Tory Times are Hard Times. It looks as if we want to get 14 dollars for our fish as last fall, we will have to get the men in the Government that we had there last year. Fishermen are more determined to stand by the F. P. U. than ever. Go ahead, Mr. Coaker, the fishermen are at your back.

FISHERMAN.
New Melbourne,
Sept. 20th, 1919.

McGRATH AND GRAFT MUST GO!

INCREASED VALUES

Property of all kinds has recently increased in value, and should be insured at its present cost. Your house and contents probably represent years of hard work, and should they be destroyed by fire, would it not be advisable to see that they are fully covered?
