

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THIRD PAGE.
Operator Wanted. Telephone Office

LOCAL NEWS.

Or Bail.—Rev. Sidney Welton is out on bail of $200.00. Bail has been refused in the case of Gideon D. Reid.

At Work.—Phillip Cox has so far recovered that he was able to resume his grammar school duties at St. John on Monday.

Returned.—Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Thompson have returned from their tour to the Pacific coast. They heartily enjoyed the trip.

The Excuse.—Mrs. W. Brown, of Rusiagonia; Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. J. Gillis, of Maryville; and Miss Inez Peterson, of this city, left for various cities of the New England states on Tuesday last.

New Church.—The new church at McAdean, built by the Catholics of that place, is being supervised and erected by Rev. F. J. Carney, who will be opened for worship on Sunday next, the 29th inst.

Am Broken.—Mrs. Whitehead Barker, when on her way to morning service, last Sunday, at Sheffield, slipped and fell breaking her left arm. Dr. Camp was summoned who made her as comfortable as possible.

Well Pleas'd.—Frank H. Risteen, one of the best rifle shots in York, had the pleasure of shooting a fine deer on the 26th inst. on the C. E. R. and its effects. The road has, during the year just closing done a largely increased freight traffic and the tourist traffic has shown a marked growth.

Embroidery.—The enlargement of the Bishop of Fredericton takes place on Wednesday next at eleven o'clock. The Bishop of Maine, will be present. The ceremony Bishop and Mrs. Kingston will hold an "at home" from four to six p. m., at their residence.

Still of Deck.—The proposed sale of the Maryville buses to a syndicate, mentioned in last issue, has failed to materialize. Messrs. Thomas and Joseph Thompson will continue to carry on the business in their accustomed obliging way. They are the pioneers and as such deserve success.

At The University.—A fair attendance of students and visitors greeted Prof. Davidson at the University on Thursday evening. He discussed prohibition from a philosophical point of view, dealing also with sectarian schools and how they affect national life. It was an able address and received a fine hearing.

St. Andrews.—The society of St. Andrew held their annual meeting on Monday night and elected officers. The society's university scholarship, which amounts to $20 a year for three years, being open this year, was awarded by an almost unanimous vote to Miss Sarah Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Thompson of this city.

The Workman.—A copy of the Workman appears among our exchanges. It is issued from the office of G. W. Day, St. John, and its name implies its devoted to the interests of the workman. It contains among other interesting matter an account from the printer's side, of the recent trouble at Progress office. Advertisers are taking hold of it.

Valuable Information.—We return thanks to the Copps, Clark Co., Toronto, for a copy of their valuable almanac. No business office nor hotel parlor is complete without one. Among its contents are lists of the baristers and solicitors of Ontario and Quebec, the clergy, post offices of Canada and a vast fund of general information. All should secure a copy. Price 20 cents.

The Rev. A. F. Thomson.—A description of the Rev. A. F. Thomson and the methods he has employed at Bathurst and elsewhere to create discord has been received at this office from his own neighborhood and will appear in next issue. Mr. Thomson has, by his own acts, become public property and if the criticisms show him up in his true light, it is only justice. Had the people of York known the truth respecting the Bathurst schools and this apostle they would not have been so led away.

It Gets There.—Geo. H. Davis, druggist, corner Queen and Regent streets, has placed in stock Dr. Murdock's vegetable cough balsam. It is a purely vegetable remedy and is a specific for coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping cough and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Now that the season is upon us when the grippe may be expected, all should fortify themselves with a bottle of this balsam. Camp crews should take it to the woods with them. All who have tried it pronounce it the best remedy yet prepared.

Baldy Barber.—On Monday morning Ruben Woodworth left his home at Zionsville, Nashwaak, with a team load of potatoes for this city. When about three miles from home in attempting to get down from the wagon he slipped and fell. His head struck on the frozen ground. He remained there in an unconscious state for about an hour and a half when he managed to turn the horses and get back home. He was put to bed, a doctor summoned, when it was found that one shoulder blade was shattered and the spine badly injured. Last reports were that he is recovering.

Feeling Case.—A peculiar case that is baffling the skill of the physicians, is that of a young girl, daughter of Sherman Bunker, Rusiagonia. In the summer her face swelled and it was believed to be caused by a defective tooth. The tooth was extracted, but the trouble continued. Tooth after tooth was drawn till in all twenty-two were taken out. The jaw bone on one side had decayed and been taken out, and the other side has become affected. Several physicians have been called but the case is an obstinate one. There is no prospect at present of the girl getting better. She has borne the surgical operations bravely, several times without an plaint.

New Brunswick Cheese.—Messrs. Tilley & Son, of Carleton county, write that they have handled close on eighty tons of cheese this season, and have sold all but about four tons, which they expect to ship in a few days. They sold one car load to a Montreal firm for the English market. An inspector was sent down to look the cheese over before shipping, who was satisfied with the quality. Application has been made to the Messrs. Tilley to erect two more cheese factories and run them next season. As both these factories would be in fine localities it is hoped that Messrs. Tilley will see their way clear to go on with the work. There were sixteen factories working this season in this province, and the prediction that the number would be doubled next year, looks as if the prediction were not far from being right. John Robertson is now in Carleton county selecting cheese that have been made at several factories, to be sent to the world's fair at Chicago. It was cheese made by Messrs. Tilley that obtained the silver medal in England last summer.

ROMANTIC WOOING.

A Well That Made Well.

A rather interesting episode has taken place at St. John in which a Fredericton young lady is deeply interested. The St. John Gazette tells the story as follows:

"Among a number of young ladies who came down from the Baptist seminary at St. Martins to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in this city, was Miss Florence Randolph, daughter of Mrs. Ella Randolph, of Hillsboro, formerly of Fredericton, and went to stay with a young lady friend and class-mate who lives in the North End. While she was there she was called on by a young gentleman friend with whom she was known to have been acquainted for some time. He was the son of Rev. Dr. Day, of Sunbury, and was en route to Philadelphia. When the young man was going away on last night's train the young lady he had called to see went to the depot with him in company with other friends to see him off. At the depot the young lady wanted to pass through the gate and on being refused permission to do so by the gatekeeper, she went to the ticket office and procured a ticket to Fairville, and on presenting this she passed through the train with the young man. In fact she boarded the train, and to the surprise of the other friends of the young man who were at the depot she did not get off and was carried away on the train.

Thinking that the young lady had merely missed getting off the train by accident her friends sent to Fairville to meet her supposing of course, that she would get off there.

There seems now not the least shadow of doubt, but that the little scheme was all arranged several hours, perhaps weeks, before the train left the I. C. S. station on Sunday evening. On Sunday afternoon the young couple enjoyed a stroll up and down Main street for several hours. Two well-known young men who reside in the city were proceeding along Main street, and one who is a great admirer of the fair sex, remarked as they passed the couple: "Those two must be in love, did you see that glances?"

The young gentleman was taken to the home of the young lady's friend and class-mate who she had called on to go to the station to bid him "good-bye." Shortly after tea, the young lady asked her friend if she could get a lamp to go up stairs, as she wanted to wrap up a gift she intended giving to her male friend. It now turns out that this is the whole of the matter, and she had several dresses, two blouses, a brush and combs and a tooth brush as well as a small parcel as stated. The young man carried this to the station and it was thought by all to be a present.

They were married in Boston on their arrival and reached this city on Thursday afternoon. They went down to Sunbury county yesterday.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

November Brides as Well as July Zepphirs Make them Bloom.

W. R. Farmer, foreman in the lath room, C. P. R. machine shop at McAdan, and Miss Della Tracy, of Keswick, were married at this city on Wednesday morning, the 19th inst., and went to Boston on a bridal tour.

On Tuesday, the 19th inst., the Rev. Mr. Noble performed the marriage ceremony at the residence of the bride's father, Gibson, between Miss Gussie Logan and Thomas Black of St. John. Harrison Estabrooks, of Maryville, and Miss Jennie Wilson, of St. John, assisted. The bride will be missed in the village, the Baptist choir especially feeling her absence very much. In this case numerous presents attested the esteem of all.

Dr. T. C. Brown, of this city, and Miss Etta Arnold, daughter of Nelson Arnold, were married at Sussex on Wednesday. The ceremony was performed in the Episcopal church by Rev. W. H. Little. Miss Thompson, of Sussex, supported the bride, Herbert Arnold, of the bank of Nova Scotia at Moncton, brother of the bride, doing the honors for the bridegroom. The contracting parties left on an extended tour through the United States. The Herald extends congratulations.

At Springfield on the 29th ult., a number of persons might have been seen wending their way to the residence of Joseph Anderson, Esq., to witness the marriage ceremony of Miss Lavina J. Anderson, of Sheldon H. Delong. The nuptial knot was tied in the presence of a number of relatives from St. Mary's, by Rev. Mr. Johnson in his usual pleasant manner. The bride came into the drawing room leaning on her father's arm; she wore white flowers and gold ornaments and looked very neat and graceful in a dark travelling costume. The happy couple were supported by the bride's brother, Beverly Anderson, and Miss Lottie Anderson of Nashwaak. Shortly after the marriage rite was announced, and all the guests were seated at the wedding tables. On account of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's unceasing hospitality, all could not help but enjoy themselves. The amusements of the evening consisted chiefly of games, music, etc. All being strict Methodists, the light fantastic did not get a turn. The presents given were numerous and valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Delong returned next day to their new home followed by a large number of the wedding party.

THE BOMBS DIDN'T GO.

But had to be Sent to the Seat of War by Wagon.

On Tuesday morning, half an hour before the Bismark was to leave with excursionists for Gagetown, a wild-eyed saps from the Reporter office with an armful of anarchist bombs, rushed madly down Queen street and headed for the steamboat wharf. Fully believing that the opposition party were going on the steamer, he dashed into the cabin, fell over two or three stools, and secreted his inflammatory bombs in a dark corner. He then came to Regent street crossing and glared up and down street for opposition leaders who came but were not allowed to go aboard. When he learned that none of that kind were wanted on the steamer, he rushed on board again, seized the bundles and struck out for the Reporter office, leaving a trail of blue fire and brimstone behind him at every stride.

He had no sooner reached the office than the telephone called an alarm and on going to it he heard the words: "You didn't get the bombs off, did you?" "No, he replied, "but they're going by wagon."

The smoke that has been seen the past few days down river, thought to be Robinson's mills in a blaze is only the halo caused by these anarchist bombs as they explode harmlessly in the hands of the Queens county electors. It is said they were consigned to Pitts and his gang, who were then in Gagetown.

All Gone to Gagetown.

Six laborers with pickaxe or shovel on their shoulders, appeared at the city hall on Tuesday last. One, who appeared to have been appointed spokesman, opened the door and asked: "Where's Bill?"

"At Gagetown."

"May he stay away from you? he's always away! Where's Mr. Beckwith?"

"Mush! May he d— fly away wid him; he's always away! What did you say?"

"Bad luck to him; away, and the poor paupers burnin' their fingers off pavin' for him; he's always away! Where's Robinson?"

"May he stay there, the town's well rid of him; he's a bit of pace down he see wid out his leg's right wid some way. Where's the mayor?"

"At Gagetown."

"Die ye hear that now, the home town, may's and all are at Gagetown? A purty mixture they must have of it! All Nell Fishery's prayers will be answered here, and the town will be a better place. Withdrawing his head, he turned to his co-laborers and said: "Byes, there's nothing to do on the wharf and have a crack wid old Jacob or follow the rest to Gagetown."

PITTS EXPOSED.

Some of His Schemes for Nomination Shown Up.

People's Betrayal Shares the Benefit of Opposition Boogie.

Facts That Can be Sworn to if Necessary.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—The N. B. Reporter of the 29th October, edited by H. H. Pitts, contains a reference, that as there was no other "resident" of this place at North Lake" during the election campaign just closed, except myself, I presume must refer to me.

It is not wise to answer every one's curiosity; and certainly one need not feel alarmed when a man of Mr. Pitts' mental calibre drops a harmless thunderbolt. Like most of his articles it lacks beginning and end, and reminds one of a school boy's first attempt at an essay. He tries to say everything at once and gets through without saying anything. But more seriously, it is not only untrue, but (and in this respect very characteristic of his shallow and egotistic author) but two or three statements in it are malicious falsehoods.

I pass here to remark that very few copies of this paper have been furnished to this section of the county; but large bundles of this issue have been sent to our temperance friends like Arthur Tabor, Byron Cronkite, John Clark and Burns Akley.

The paragraph, which has barely enough truth in it to make the falsehoods appear consistent, seems to suggest, that like the author, I have "turned my coat" for North Lake and Middle Southampton, it asserts, I "maligned the cause" (Pitts' representation). If he meant the opposition cause he speaks the truth; but if he meant the temperance cause he speaks absolutely false. The fact is, sir, that at North Lake I spent ten or fifteen minutes of my address in advocacy of the prohibition, and stating clearly that I signed Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

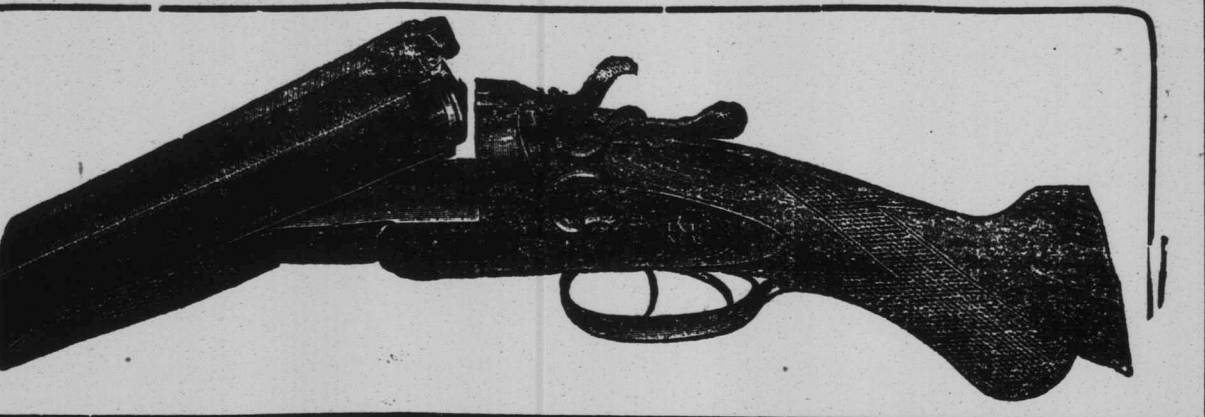

N. W. B. Bows.

Mr. Pitts' nomination paper as a prohibition or third party candidate and contributed with others towards defraying the legitimate expenses of his election, but that I had no intention of voting for the opposition ranks; that the vote he would poll would not (and I claim it does not) represent temperance, but opposition, hoodlums, and to a limited extent non-temperance; an heterogeneous mass, out of which conscientious prohibitionist could very few grains of comfort or satisfaction. "For Mr. Pitts personally," I said, "I had a warm word to say; but he had gone where I could not follow, so was obliged to drop him."

Nobody knows better than Mr. Pitts that the whole gist of the temperance nomination convention was that the temperance party—as a party—had no great faith in either prohibition or opposition so far as direct prohibitory legislation was concerned. Both necessarily had to be limited to party trammels. Therefore, it was resolved to nominate a candidate who would "know no party politics," but who was to stick to his own principles, viz. prohibition, and blood and fire kindling, he says that when he is short of circulating they are highly prized.

N. W. B. Bows.

GUNS! GUNS!

JUST RECEIVED, DIRECT IMPORTATION, THREE CASES GUNS.
40 Double Barrelled Breach Loading Guns, With all the Modern Improvements.
25 Single Barrelled Breach Loading Guns,
16 Muzzle Loading Guns,
15 Flobert Rifles, with a large stock of Marlin, Winchester and other rifles.
All of which will be sold at ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.
JAMES S. NEILL.

THE BISMARCK

Was not Chartered by the Opposition.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:
Referring to an article in the Observer of the 16th inst., under the heading of "Getting to Gagetown," I desire to place myself right with regard to the reference in the said article about the management of the tug Bismarck and its connection with the said Gagetown excursion. This article states that the friends of the opposition engaged the Bismarck to take them to the Gagetown nomination; this I emphatically deny. The following are the facts: Myself and some friends in Margerville, and it was the friends of the opposition who engaged the Bismarck to take them to the Gagetown nomination; this I emphatically deny. The following are the facts: Myself and some friends in Margerville, and it was the friends of the opposition who engaged the Bismarck to take them to the Gagetown nomination; this I emphatically deny.

SEE THE BIG GUN

It Does Its Work Effectively. So does

GUNN, THE TAILOR.

Guarantee good fit, and first-class materials in his MAKE UP.

Come in and see my Cloths and hard pan prices. It will pay you to do so.

NEARLY OPPOSITE NORMAL SCHOOL. IN STOCK. A beautiful line of GENTS' SOLID GOLD 14K

American Watches

FOR SALE AT VERY FINE FIGURES. 14K AND 10K GOLD FILLED CASES.

A big line of American movements to suit any American case. Before purchasing elsewhere kindly give us a call and get our price.

An elegant line of American Jewellery always in stock. Ladies' and Gents' Roll Plate Chains and Fobs.

A full line of Wedding and Engagement Friendship Rings. Sovereign Spoons, Coffee, Tea and Orange in Sterling Silver.

Clocks cheapest in the city. Work in all branches of the trade neatly and promptly done.

R. BLACKMER, DRUG STORE.

Nearly opposite City Hall.

WILEY'S DRUG STORE.

Nearly opposite City Hall.

SOAPS

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A crown of better baking power. Highest of all in quality and purity. Largest U. S. Government Food Laboratory.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

WANTED IMMEDIATELY. A YOUNG LADY, well recommended, for operator at Telephone Office.

Sand Paper.

JUST TO HAND: BEAMS' Sand Paper assorted from No. 6 to 3, by call from manufacturers, and for sale in quantities.

TO LET

THAT self contained residence on King street, at 3, present occupied by Dr. Coburn, supplied with all modern improvements. Rent reasonable. Possession given May 1st. Apply to John Edgecombe & Sons, April 1st.

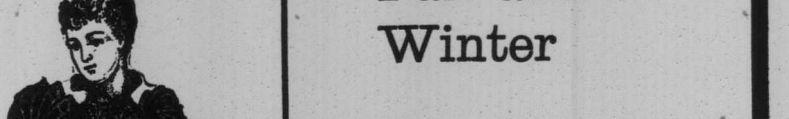

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that Henry Wisney, of the Parish of Douglas, in the County of York, has this day made an assignment of all his estate to a trust for the benefit of his creditors. The trust deed now lies in my office, where creditors who wish to sign the same, may do so within ninety days.

GEO. A. HUGHES, Barrister-at-Law. Fredericton, July 12, A. D. 1892.

Dress

Fall and Winter

Dress Materials

BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES

For Home Wear, Street Wear, Evening Toilet, at

FRED. B. EDGECOMBE'S

192 and 194 Queen Street.

W. R. LOGAN, DEALER IN

LOGAN'S GROCERY

Received this Week.

California Peaches, California Pears, Rio Tomatoes, Rio Cherries, Rio Apples, Water Melons, Native Cabbages.

Preserve Jars, Mason Improved Jars, in plates and quart at the lowest price.

Fairbank's Poured Corn Beef, You will find this meat on the counter, and that you can have any sized also asked for.

French Mustard, Pickles, Sauces, Ketchup, Lima Beans and Prunes, at lowest prices.

W. R. LOGAN.

25 Half Chests, best quality BLACK TEA, retail price only 10 cents per pound or this price for $1.00. Sample of this tea will be given to anyone in answer to this advertisement.

In Stock. Fotted Ham, Luncheon, Scotch Beef, Ox Tongue and full line of canned goods.

LUMBERMEN'S GOODS.

TENNANT, DAVIES & CO.

Camp Blanketing, Grey and White Blankets, Knit Shirts and Drawers, Socks, Mitts, Oversocks, Overalls, Strong Pants, Etoffe Jumpers and Horse Blankets, our own make.

All at rock bottom prices.

TENNANT, DAVIES & CO.

202 Queen Street 'F'ion.

RUBBERS

Great Variety.

LOTTIMER'S SHOE STORE.

210 QUEEN ST. FREDERICTON.

W. J. EDGECOMBE, A. G. EDGECOMBE, NORMAN A. EDGECOMBE.

YOUR ORDERS NOW!

The short period for which our Carriage factory has been closed, has enabled us to get everything in first class order, and we are better able than ever to give the utmost satisfaction to all our customers old and new.

WINTER HAS GONE!

So far as Sleighs are concerned and Carriages are now the order of the day. Our stock cannot be surpassed. We have a large number of orders booked, but we propose to fill them and many more.

John Edgecombe & Sons.

Manufacturers of Fine Carriages, Sleighs, and Horses. YORK ST. FREDERICTON, N. B.

Farm for Sale.

THE subscriber's farm at St. Mary's, near the Railway Station, containing 500 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation. There are two houses, barns and outbuildings on the premises, all in good repair. For terms apply to J. J. Halloway, Solicitor, Fredericton, or to J. B. Robinson, 105 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B.

JOHN A. EDWARDS, Queen Hotel.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that Henry Wisney, of the Parish of Douglas, in the County of York, has this day made an assignment of all his estate to a trust for the benefit of his creditors. The trust deed now lies in my office, where creditors who wish to sign the same, may do so within ninety days.

GEO. A. HUGHES, Barrister-at-Law. Fredericton, July 12, A. D. 1892.