A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "My father resides at Glover, N. B. He has been a great sufferer from beriberi, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous cure it is."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the poison for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scurfiness on the scalp, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would now give the facts to his honor.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS.

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefits I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Six months ago I was completely covered with a scurfiness on the scalp, and the hair fell out, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to seep out. I was unable to do a good day's work, although 27 years of age. Many inquire what has brought such a cure to my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1884. Yours gratefully, HIRSH PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworms, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and King's Evil, &c. It cures the blood of all impurities, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1.00 per bottle for 60.

THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH IN BRITISH AMERICA.

SOME HISTORICAL GLIMPSES AND STATISTICAL FACTS.

The history of the Church in Canada is not indeed, a record of prodigious growth, as in the United States; but it is none the less interesting on that account. The early annals of the French colonies in North America are full of extremely romantic episodes, and of the heroic element, while, at the same time, they are a record of Canadian Catholicity. Whoever has read Father Charlevoix's invaluable history, or even the writings of the Protestant historians, Parkman, need not be told that the history of the propagation of the Catholic faith in Canada is full of absorbing interest. When Jacques Cartier and his adventurous companions sailed from the shores of France to seek new domains for their sovereign they brought with them the Cross and the Gospel. Black-robed missionaries were familiar figures on the banks of the St. Lawrence, and the first settlement, less than thirty years ago, captured the "Gibraltar of America" by stealth. The beauty and charm of Longfellow's poem of "Evangeline" are due mainly to the fact that it is a perfect reflection of the peaceful and edifying life that was led by the early Catholic settlers of Acadia. The difficulties that were encountered and overcome by the Jesuit and Recollet Fathers when they were preaching the Gospel among the Indians, excite the admiration and amazement of a modern reader. Like their brethren in the far South, they plunged into huge forests and forded rushing streams. They braved the icy keenness of Polar blasts, as well as the many privations and hardships that necessarily accompany an expedition of pioneers into a vast wilderness. Their success was great and lasting; and, in addition to the Catholics of French, Irish and Scotch descent, the Dominicans, who were sent to the Indians, excite the admiration and amazement of a modern reader.
