There was Mr. Howlan, who answered by the figures given above the Patriot to lie. in order to contest the County for a seat In its account of Mr. Davies' meeting in the Commons, so that he might be at Murray River, two days before the in the Commons, so that he might be in a position to press upon the Government the tunnel question. Above all other questions this is the one that most deeply interests the people of this Province; for without it we will be unable to benefit half as much as we should by any reciprocity treaty which McDonald and McLean majorities of all other provinces of the province in the country answered on the 5th by giving McDonald and McLean majorities of all and 46 respectively. Sir John may be able to effect with the 41, and 46 respectively. Government of the United States. By their action these people have in effect, said they do not want the tunnel.

The general result in King's County, the election of the Government candidates, shows that the electorate there

Rousing speeches were made by Sir Leonard, Judge Palmer, Thomas Potts and others. Rev. George M. Grant is to lecture before the Branch on his visit to St. John. Blake's letter is already

Stuart Hayes, a young man employed as clerk for C B Weldon, skipped out of St. John on Sanday night. He is a defaulter to the extent of about seventeen hundred dollars. Mr. Weldon is an agent here of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Co. and his loss falls on him. Hayes has owned up. His widow. Hayes has owned up. His widow-ed mother lies in a critical condition brought on by the blow, Young Hayes was an inveterate cigarette smoker.

It is reported that Langlieer, M. P., of Quebec, and Weldon, of St. John, sre conferring with Jones, of Halifax, to buy up the Maritime Province members to go back on Sir John. A conference is now being held in Halifax. The truth likely is that they are working up protests against the Consevatives. It is said that the trio will visit P. E. Island.

One hundred and sixteen English immigrants passed through St. John last night en route to the Northwest. Many of them were rich west. Many of them were rich Among the members who will sit in next Parliament is Mr. Hugh Mc-Donald, Sir John's son, who was elected
