The Expositor says : - We have to chronicle this week the death of Mrs. Bastard, wife of Mr. Joseph Bastard, of the township of Stephen, about two miles from Dashwood. This family has suffered a sad bereavement in the loss of an affectionate, tender and loving mother, who leaves behind her a large family of sorrowing children, some of whem are very young. But this is not the only trouble, the father lies also in a very critical condition, suffering from erysipelas in the face and head, and at times he is quite delirious so that his life is despaired of. Also the eldest daughter lies very ill, in fact, the hopes for her recovery are but weak. The other members of the family are also suffering more or less, being quite fatigued with
