The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Will all the kind folks who contributed suggestions for the benefit of my shy lady, please consider themselves heartily thanked both by her and me.

I couldn't use all of your letters some of their duplicated suggestions and because some of them came after I had written on the subject, but I enjoyed them all very much.

It was so pleasant, you see, to hear you folks speak and know you were still there. Every once in awhile I have a terrible wonder if I am playing to an empty house. If there could be such a thing as a blind and deaf actor who, because of his infirmity, would have no way of knowing how large and how well pleased his audiences were I think he'd feel the way I sometimes do.

And if after the play some of his audience should come up and grasp him by the hand to let him know they had sat through the play and had enjoyed it, I think he'd feel the way I do when I receive letters from you folks.

I had the pleasure of being a witness to a very charming little incident this noon.

A pretty young girl who came out of a restaurant just ahead of me, slipped quietly up to a big cart horse which stood by the curb, and shyly offered him a couple of lumps of sugar. The big creature mumbled the sugar up out of her hand with something as near delighted surprise as a horse could show, and the girl stroked his big nose for a moment and then passed on.

Such a little thing to do but such a sweet one.

And that isn't meant for a pun by any means.

I think it's people who have time for little kindnesses like that who make the account of the world's joys

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden."

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,
Theatre Hill. Small size, 25 cents; postage 5c. extra; large size, 50 cents; postage 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance—Oct 23, 1910.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

If there is one characteristic more than another which marks our "Ready for Service Clothing" it is the Fine Tailoring that is put into every garment we handle. We are never satisfied—we are constantly striving for finer work, and every successive season is improving the make and finish of our clothes. Our success has never been so striking as with the New Models we are now showing.

The Battle of the Guns.

It seems almost impossible to obtain final facts with regard to the naval position between England and Germany—each succeeding day brings its own contradiction. An important disclosure was made that the new English Dreadnoughts were to be armed with a 13½ in. naval gun, such as had never been used before. The effect of this, we were then told, was that it upset all the German calculations, as they would have to revise their own plans and to provide bigger guns. This would cause delay, and leave us with an enormous margin of Dreadnoughts in 1913. The latest statement is that Germany has decided to go one better, and is to meet the British 13½ in. gun with a 14 in. Krupp gun of greater power.

There is no difficulty in making these big guns, as the English Elswick yard has already placed a 14 in. gun on the new Brazilian super-Dreadnought which it is building.

But people are asking—How far is his sort of thing to go?

A Cinematograph Daily

"Pathé Freres, the cinematograph manufacturers, have established a daily service of moving pictures of the news," says the World's Work. The enterprise, which goes by the name of the Animated Gazette, is a complete news organization, with an editor, Mr. Steer, and a staff of 5,000 reporters scattered all over the world.

"The product of this organization is a cinematograph film which is sent out to a circuit of moving-picture theatres, and is already being seen daily and nightly by more than two million of people. An idea of the circulation possibilities of this kind of thing is gathered from the fact that London has 500 moving-picture shows, that every city and town of Europe and America possesses from one to a dozen."

LIVING PICTURES BY WIRE.

"Cinematography by wire has been successfully accomplished by M. Jourd'ard Belin, a French inventor, who has constructed an apparatus by which a series of photographs can be telegraphed instantaneously, and faithfully reproduced many miles away," says the Evening Standard. "The invention is still in the embryonic stage, but inventors are rapidly solving the difficulties which have up to the moment presented themselves, and it is confidently expected that ere long living pictures will be transmitted by means of telegraph or cablegraph."

World Trip on Motor Cycle.

Frenchman Expects to Circle Earth in Four Months.

Roger Colardeau, an adventurous Frenchman living in New York, will in May or June of next year start on a motorcycle tour around the world. He will ride a single cylinder car, and expects to be gone about four months. Thus far Colardeau has no contented going alone, but if he can find one other motorcyclist as adventurous as himself, he may consent to a partner as it will considerably diminish both dangers and loneliness in the wilds of Siberia. Colardeau is simply going for the sport of the undertaking and will bear his own expenses. He has been planning the trip for some time, but did not care to make an announcement until all details had been perfected. He will leave shortly for Paris to arrange for supply stations throughout Siberia and Russia.

Asbestol Horsehide Gloves for Men.

TAKE men who are plying their calling through storm and tempest—the crew of ships handling icy ropes, cases and all kinds of packages in all conditions of weather, many of these packages with nails and sharp edges of iron jutting out at the sides.

Picture a man with pierced and bleeding hands caused by these sharp edges.

The captain from his position on the bridge exposed to the severest cold—the railroad man at all kinds of work—the engineer handling and fitting hot steam pipes—the truckman doing rough and heavy work—the mechanic doing outside skilled labor, and you will say it is necessary for these men to protect their hands with Asbestol Horsehide Gloves.

Asbestol Gloves are made of genuine horsehide, tanned by a mineral process, which makes these gloves stand the test of heat, steam, water and washing—sewed in the strongest possible manner, perfect fitting, and made for rough, heavy and hard work.

These gloves when dirty can be washed with soap and water, can be wet through and dried in the strongest heat and will dry out absolutely as soft and pliable as when new. Made in black and yellow. Size 9, 9½, 10, 10½.

Come in and see these gloves. Prices are low for the qualities.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicines dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Household Notes.

Do not be tempted to experiment with every furniture polish. Never use anything on furniture that you do not know all about. Doing over ruined furniture is costly and varnish is easily hurt.

To keep a meal hot for a late comer, fill a soup plate nearly full of hot water, place the dinner plate with its contents on top of the hot soup plate and cover closely with still another plate.

To keep a gas stove from rusting when it is not in use for the winter first clean carefully with pumice, dry carefully, and then rub over with olive oil. It is best to do this while the stove is warm.

It is a great protection from moths when putting clothes away to scatter over them dried wormwood, which may be procured from any druggist. Each article should be wrapped separately in a newspaper.

When carpets are not taken up they can be greatly freshened by washing with water in which a tablespoonful of ammonia has been added to a pail of water. This should be done after a thorough sweeping.

When wall paper is to be cleaned with medicated putties or crusts of bread the room should first be made free of dirt. Work only in one direction. No paper will stand cleaning more than three times.

Always empty a tea kettle after using and before filling again with fresh water rinse thoroughly. In that way you avoid boiling over possible germs and also keep sediment from forming in the bottom of the kettle.

In packing away fruit cookies, it will be found wise to put the cookies in a jar or box in layers with a piece of paraffin paper between each layer. Then the cookies will be kept whole and will look well when taken out.

To make cheese straws take two and a half cups of grated cheese and half a cupful of butter. Mix thoroughly, add a pinch of salt and sufficient flour to make a dough that will roll out thin. Cut in long, narrow strips and bake in a quick oven.
