To meet the demands of our rapidly increasing business we are compelled to make extensive alterations to our store. To enable us to do this without inconveniencing our customers, we have decided to close our Store for 14 days.

When we have completed these alterations our Store will be second to none in the city. This will enable us to stock a larger range of Up-To-Date Gents' Furnishings, which up to the present we were unable to do, through lack of space.

We thank our numerous patrons for the excellent support they have given us since we started the K. & A. STORE, and hope that when we re-open that Bright little Store on the Corner, it will be just as popular as ever.

We remain, yours faithfully,

C. F. KEARNEY,
J. M. ATKINSON.

Ye Old Favourites—The Vitagraph Company, presenting the enthralling photo-play, entitled: A DOCTOR'S SACRIFICE. Showing the manly professional side of a criminal's character.

This is a story of pathos, with no suspicion of artificiality. Assuredly the Vitagraph players have never appeared in anything more simple, more stirring or more artistically perfect.

MR. E. A. EMILE will be heard in the tuneful vocal number.

'I'm Afraid of You.' Beautifully Illustrated.

The Edison Stock Co. in Esther McLeod's novelized Scenario. HER PHOTOGRAPH.

A brilliant romance of a Society Courtship.

In truth a brilliant tale. These players know the world, and they can tell a story, and the settings in which their characters live and work out their love romance, give this film distinction among the films of the season. Lady patrons will be fascinated with the fashionable elegance of the gowns worn in the Ball Maque Scene.
