The Eyesight Specialists.How Canadians Treat Disloyalty.Soldiers Wreck Newspaper Office and Duck Alderman -- Lively Time in Kitchener, Ontario.KITCHENER, Dec. 2.—Reports reaching here give the following description of the riotous scenes which followed the meeting of the City Council, when the soldiers went back to the name of the city.On his refusal one of the soldiers spat upon him with the remark that that was the way the Germans had treated the British soldiers when the opportunity came their way.

Alderman Bowman fled.

The anger of the crowd rose at continued refusals to kiss the flag and finally they dragged both Bet-zer and Bowman from the building.
The latter making good his escape when a veteran threw him sprawling at the foot of the stairway. Betzer was hurried to the G. W. V. A. rooms followed by a crowd of more than 2,000 people. At the club he was marched to the front of the room and there made to kiss the flag; a cuff over his head was administered first, however.Taken from the room, and followed by the mob, a parade was started, to Victoria Lake, where he was ducked. He was then allowed his freedom and his way home hastened by a few healthy kicks and admonitions to leave town within two weeks.The crowd then made for the News-Record office, where they smashed the windows and wrecked the place completely and after they visited the home of Alderman Asmussen, M. P. P. He was prepared for them and met them on the verandah of his house with a revolver, advised also to kiss the flag.Maternity Hospital

An argument was started which looked serious and a woman ran across the street calling out, "In the name of Christianity.""A veteran replied that Germans had not used Christianity with them.
Amussen was finally persuaded to go with the men to the G. W. V. A. hall, where he was made to sing "God Save the King" and made to kiss the flag."Still unsatisfied the veterans went in search of W. D. Euler, M. P. for North Waterloo. He was located at his club, dragged out and taken to the G. W. V. A. headquarters, where, when he refused to sing the National Anthem and kiss the flag he was knocked down three times. Eventually he was spirited away by Captain MacIntosh, President of the G. W. V. A., as he was about to be taken to the lake and to be ducked.

Fell Through Window.

"Mr. Euler is editor of the News-Record of Kitchener, which was wrecked by the mob during the riot.
When Euler was first knocked down in G. W. V. Hall last night he fell part way through a window and was saved from falling three stories to the pavement and rescued from his perilous position by the prompt efforts of Captain MacIntosh, who stated that he got Euler away because he did not have a chance after the blows he had received and because "400 to 1 was not fair.""The editorial in his paper, the Kitchener News-Record, which Mr.
Euler was asked by the returned soldiers to explain, was published just after the Prince of Wales, visit to the city and was headed "Overdoing the Welcome," was as follows:"What democrats we are to be sure.
The Prince of Wales is a nice, pleasing young man, and as long as we must have Kings and Emperors (I almost said Kaisers) I suppose it is right to have the Prince visit a country whose King he is to be some day, but it is amusing and it is disgusting how silly and humble people will be in the presence of flesh and blood like ourselves if only he has a title.Toronto, which is the most English city in the Empire, and which calls itself loyal, is the worst offender, as usual. A city that elects a demagogue like Tommy Church as Mayor and does it five times in succession, cannot be expected to be anything but hysterical when it tries to be patriotic."Christian Bros.

MRS. LEWIS
OF BROOKLYNTells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.Brooklyn, N. Y.—"For one year I was miserable from a displacement, which caused a general run-down condition with headaches and pains in my side. My sister induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
I found it helped me very much and such a splendid tonic that I am recommending it to any woman who has similar troubles."—Mrs. ELLEN G. LEWIS, 50 Vernon Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.Such conditions as Mrs. Lewis suffered from may be caused by a fall or a general weakened run-down condition of the system, and the most successful remedy to restore strength to muscles and tissue and bring about a normal healthy condition—has proved to be this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
