Cochrane St. Church.

REV. GORDON DICKIE PREACHES. Rev. Gordon Dickie was the preach er at last evening's service at Cochrane St. Centennial Church, taking as his subject the problem: "Will God make or break the world?" It is said molasses laden. (Rev. 21:1) that "there shall be a new heaven and a new earth," and to judge from distinguishing signs mentioned by Christ and the coinciding ones of the present era, the time when the change is to be effective is here. There is great unrest-social and industrial-in the world to-day, and the very foundations of society are being shaken. What is going to be the result? Is God going to break the world-end it? The preacher believed differently. Regarding the second coming of Christ he was inclined day evening at 8.30 o'clock. J. to believe that this statement was to A. LEAHY, Sec'y,—jan12,11 be taken figuratively and that the coming of Christ typified the spreadng, anew, of the Spirit of Christ and Christianity throughout the unquietened, restless world. "It will take all our time—all our attention—all our rains Christianity itself to sustain the shock," he declared, 'for the world is to-day in a bad state." Without going beneath the surface of his subect, the preacher was none the less interesting and his spoken thoughts greatly impressed his large congrega-
