

The Forthcoming Elections.

The Herald in referring to our remarks on the approaching Municipal elections, renews its old complaint that, in mentioning the names of some gentlemen who had consented to run for certain offices, and some who were expected to run for others, we were dictating to the electors.

With this exception and a spiteful fling at Mr. Massie, which is contemptible and not worth referring to, we are glad to see that the Herald, contrary to its old habit, opens the campaign in a very different spirit from that which has characterized its many attacks during the year on several members of the Council.

Mr. Chadwick's paper announces that he is to run for Reeve, and with affected diffidence gives him a most unexceptionable character, which was of course to be expected, from the fact that he owns the Herald, controls its columns, and if report speaks true, writes not a few of the articles bearing on Municipal matters.

The Herald most decidedly objects to the candidature of Mr. Raymond and Mr. McLagan. We never expected anything else, for the fact that these gentlemen intend to run has no doubt upset some nice little scheme which the Herald and some of its ardent friends had fondly set their hearts on.

The Herald brings out some new names for Councillors in addition to those we gave the other day. It states that Mr. Robert Oliver will run for the West Ward, Messrs. Richard and Robert Mitchell for the North Ward, Messrs. Thomas Heffernan, J. Watson Hall and A. B. Petrie for the South Ward, and Messrs. Davidson, Coffee and Sayers for the East Ward.

Several of the editorial and other items which appear to-day were crowded out from yesterday.

Hon. Mr. Laird, M. P., from Prince Edward Island, was on Tuesday elected by acclamation.

Mr. Cartwright has been elected for Lennox by a majority of 808, and perhaps we had better own up that in that particular constituency we have been defeated.—Hamilton Spectator.

The Ottawa Times says the people will accept the Pacific Scandal, neither plain nor varnished. Just so. The John A. varnish for this sort of transaction has held out a long time, but is now getting "too thin."

The Globe says that if Bickford were elected, the Western Division of Toronto would be made to appear as ridiculous as the East has been since Beatty was sent to Parliament to look after his York Road pickings, in 1867.

The Witness complains that no action has been taken in reference to the case of Mr. C. E. Belle, although the investigation into his alleged immoral conduct concluded six months since. Mr. Belle has resigned his situation of Superintendent of the Emigrants' Home, but retains that of Crown Land Commissioner.

The Mail confidently prophesied a victory for Mr. Hooper in Lennox; and the event was that Mr. Cartwright was returned by a majority of 823. Now the Mail says there can be no doubt of Mr. Bickford's return in West Toronto. We accept the augury. That veracious print will prove as good a prophet in one case as in the other.

The New York Tribune thinks things in the States are looking decidedly better, and says:—"The result may be seen in the evidence of rapid recuperation on all hands—in the advance in breadstuffs and cotton—in the steady export demand—in the absence of further reports of the stoppage of manufactories—in the re-opening of some that have already made arrangements for the profitable renewal of work—in the solid position of the banks—the renewals of suspended houses—the appreciation even of railroad securities—and especially in the general conviction that, after all, there is no danger of 'the bottom's dropping out.'"

The Reformers of Peel have selected their candidate for Mr. Coyne's vacant seat in the Ontario Legislature. At a convention held under the auspices of the Brampton Reform Association on Tuesday, Mr. Kenneth Chisholm was nominated, and made the unanimous choice of the Convention. Mr. Chisholm is a leading merchant in Brampton and Orangeville, and a popular man in the district. The Peel Reformers have made a good choice, and we hope to see a Reform representative sitting for Peel in the next session of the Legislature.

Mr. James Sturton's APPOINTMENT.—The Herald, in noticing the appointment of Mr. James Sturton as Manager of the Model Farm, blunders wofully as usual. It says that Mr. Sturton has been appointed in place of Mr. Henning. This is totally untrue. Mr. Henning is altogether ignorant of the work assigned to Mr. Sturton—which is to take charge of the stock—and the appointments in no way clash or interfere with each other.
