Trades and Labor Council Will Ask for Appointment of Competent Tradesman; Important Business Was Transacted Last Night

The Trades and Labor council at its ing last night decided to petition provincial legislature to appoint a e factory inspector, a competent lesman, for the purpose of seeing hat machinery, etc., is in proper con-lition and is being operated under roper conditons. This is not intended a reflection on the female factor; pectors. Nor it is intended that the de inspector shall displace them. But a council believes that it, is also sary to have a man who under-

Mands machinery.

A progress report was made by the mmittee appointed to prepare in-rmation relative to the compensation t. The commission that has been ointed by the provinc al authorities to prepare data for the framing of the act will sit in Calgary Nov. 20.

The trades council decided to help the retail clerks in securing members for their union and in pushing the aign for the early closing bylaw. The brewery workers reported in tayor of all unions receiving returned etans to membership without fees.
matter was referred to the unions

The signatures W. T. D. Lathwell reported that the were obtained.

MISS JENNY TAGGART SINGS AGAIN IN CALGARY

The Scotch Vocalist Will Be Welcomed Back at Scotch Choir Concert

Music lovers in the city will be pleased to know that arrangements have now been completed for the appearance of the world-famous prima lonna, Miss Jenny Taggart, in conunction with the Calgary Scottish Chair at the Al Azhar Temple on Tuesday evening, November 13, at 8 o'clock. Miss Taggart's appearance in the city last spring will be remembered by nany who had the pleasure of hearing her. Her selection of songs for the concert is a most varied one and will give her a splendid opportunity of displaying 'her wonderful vocal powers. Associated with Miss Taggart and the choir will be an instrumental trio by Misses May MacKinnon, Maye Rankin and Freda Sweet, which will lend additional variety. Mr. Horace Reynolds will also contribute songs, as well as

Jewelry Will Surely Be Individual If Bought at Black's

Occasionally one will find a piece of Jewelry that is just suited to someone, a part of his personality. It must have an individuality about it that makes it impossible to be easily duplicated. It must be of modern design, of unquestioned quality, and it must be sufficiently attractive

Such a collection of individual Gifts we have prepared with great care and expense, to show the Gift Seeker. We design and manufacture a great many of our finer pieces on the premises. We do not make duplicates, therefore you have the added assurance of not finding your purchase on display elsewhere, in cheaper quality.

May we not show you some of these suggestions in Rings, Pendants. Brooches, Earrings, etc., and if you are pleased with it, we will lay it away for you until nearer Christmas?
