Joseph Granville, charged with stealing goods from McKay's store at Kingsville in October last, has been committed to stand his trial before Judge Horne at Windsor. Minnie Sullivan was arrested in Leamington Saturday and taken to Windsor, charged with child desertion. It seems that she had been stopping around Walkerville for some time with her child, and Thursday night left the latter on the doorstep of Chief of Police Griffiths, who set about locating the deserter, and traced her to Leamington. The girl's mother a short time ago eloped with a colored man, who was employed at the cattle barns.

Miss Nellie E. Robinson, daughter of exwarden Henry Robinson, was married a few days ago celebrated the 50th anniversary of his marriage. Children and grand-children, together with a number of intimate friends, gathered at the old homestead and showered congratulations. After the enjoyment of a sumptuous dinner, the venerable couple were presented with a couple of handsome chairs. This was followed by a few well-chosen remarks by the honored bridegroom expressive of the pleasure and gratitude of himself and partner for all that had been said and done on this occasion. After a time spent in conversation and music the proceedings terminated with an excellent address from the Rev. Mr. Hanch, pastor of the church with which the aged couple have been connected for nearly 40 years, Mr. Fry has been a prominent figure in the community for many years. Coming in 1852, he at once engaged in the mercantile business. Upon the opening of the first postoffice in the following year he received the appointment of postmaster, which position he still holds.
