♦ LUNCHEON—Giblet patties, Welsh rabbit. Rusks. Russian tea.

♦ DINNER—Ox-tail soup. Spring of lamb. Mint sauce. Green peas. Lettuce. Neapolitan sauce. French coffee.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Chicago Muffins—Mix together one and a half pints of flour, half a pint of cornmeal, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt. Work in one tablespoonful of butter or lard, and add three eggs and one pint of milk and beat the whole quickly into a firm batter. The muffins should not be as a rule be more than half filled. The griddle should be hot and well greased to receive the rings. When the batter rises to the top the muffins are usually ready to turn. Serve with maple syrup if you have it on hand.

Giblet Patties—Clean one-half pound of lamb, trim off a piece of water with onion, pepper, salt, thyme and a little parsley until nearly done; add one pound of lean beef or fresh pork, cut in small strips, and stew with giblets fifteen minutes; thicken with one tablespoonful of flour. Put paste for giblets in a small tin, and add one pound of lard, salted; mix flour and lard together, a little baking powder will improve it; mix with ice cold water, handle quickly; put under crust; put in pans, and fill with giblets, cover with crust and bake in quick oven.

Russian Tea—Pare and slice one juicy lemon, lay a piece in the bottom of each teacup, sprinkle with a little sugar and pour hot tea made of best uncolored Japan on the lemon. Do not use cream.

Ox-Tail Soup—Cut one ox-tail into joints and fry brown in good dripping. Slice three onions and two carrots, and fry the same dripping until the ox-tail has been taken out. Tie these with thyme and parsley in a cheesecloth bag and drop into soup. Put in the ox-tail and one pound of beef cut in fine strips; let simmer several hours; grate over these two carrots, with a half-teaspoon pepper and one teaspoon salt, add a little celery seed if you have it. Strain the soup, and fill with giblets, cover with crust and bake in quick oven.

Neapolitan—Make enough puff-paste to fill a tin, roll into a sheet half an inch thick, cut into strips three inches long and one and a half inches in width. Bake in quick oven; when done, spread half of the strips with jam or jelly and put the other half over, forming pairs with jelly between. Cover with frosting or dust with sugar.

detachment to the Queen's Jubilee in England. Capt. Stuart and Lieut. Niven of the Twenty-sixth, will also take a voluntary course.

—Messrs. W. J. Carling and Thomas Fitton are in London this week, the mission of the former being to undergo an operation for the removal of a large growth from one of his jawbones, the result of an injury sustained some years ago from contact with a cricket ball. The operation was successfully performed, and, although Mr. Carling will be unable to return home for a week or more, he passed through it with comparative comfort. —Exeter Times.

—At the regular meeting of the Wellington Street Methodist Sunday school board, the following resolution was adopted: "Having learned that it is the intention to erect and equip a theater at, or adjacent to, our beautiful park at Springbank, we as a board do protest and condemn the project as one that will tend to demoralize and seriously interfere with Springbank as a place of recreation for our young people, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Managers Carr and Route and the city papers." W. C. Southcott, secretary of board.

—Rev. Mr. Salton, a leading Methodist minister in St. Thomas, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He was driving along one of the main streets with a young man, when the horse ran away. The young man, who was driving, lost control of the horse, and Rev. Mr. Salton, in order to save himself, jumped out of the rig. He was thrown forward on the rough pavement, receiving several ugly gashes on his face and arms. The driver was thrown from the rig against a post, when the horse turned into Ridout street, but received no serious injuries.

—A Montreal dispatch Friday night says: A demented Turk was arrested this morning by Constable O'Donnell at the Bank of Montreal for disturbing the peace. The poor man had millions in the bank, and wanted to draw on that institution for a large amount to go and fight for his country. Dr. Bouchard, a surgeon, and his assistant, the Turk, in broken English and French, that he had come from London, Ont. His name was Ganus Cui, about thirty-four years of age. His father was a Turkish Jew, and his mother was a Christian, but he abhorred the idea of being a Christian himself. In his pockets were found two rings, a scarf pin, and an Irish Queen's jubilee medal. The prisoner was remanded for eight days for identification.

—A well-pleased audience listened to Mr. Hoyt L. Conary, the talented elocutionist of Boston, at the Auditorium last evening, on the occasion of the London Wheelmen's entertainment. The sketch, "Around the Stove," gives full play for Mr. Conary's talent as a character impersonator. Around the stove in the village, and his assemblage, blunt farmer, the effusive drummer, the ambitious politician, the pedantic student, the English-murdering Frenchman, and the inevitable Irishman, Dennis. They all tell stories, and thus spend a jolly evening. The selection throughout sparkles with humor. Several excellent selections were also rendered by the Y. M. C. A. Mandolin and Guitar Club, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Lawton. The club was only organized a short time ago, and is already in a flourishing condition.

CAMP FOR A MONTH.
The military camp this summer will last one month, just twice as long as usual. There will be two divisions, the first composed of the First Hussars and the Twenty-sixth, Twentieth and Twenty-eighth Battalions, who will go under canvas on June 14. They will be here for two weeks, when the artillery of the district, including the Guelph Field Battery and the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth and Thirty-first Battalions will move into the tents vacated by the other battalions. The grounds on the hill are not large enough to accommodate the entire camp at one time.

THE UNITED STATES DUTY ON
The increased United States import duty on wool, which will come into force July 1, will affect the Canadian shipments of this year's clip. Mr. Thomas W. Wright, a well-known wool dealer in this city, speaking of this matter, said the wool would be shipped in June, and about one month would be required to get it ready, so that the increased rate would be in force before it could be shipped. The shippers have not much stock on hand from last year, hence no movement can be made to ship in large quantities before July 1.

THE EMERALD ISLE.
"The Emerald Isle" was the subject of the third of the fortnightly course of lectures delivered last evening by Rev. Robert Johnston, and describing his trip to the motherland. Mr. Johnston, who is himself an Irishman, spoke feelingly of Irish patriotism and the troubles of the people. Continuing he gave a graphic description of the chief points of interest in Ireland, referring particularly to Belfast and Dublin. The school room of St. Andrew's Church, in which the lecture was held, was filled with a large and well-pleased audience. The next and final lecture will be upon the subject "Wales and the English Lakes."

THE W. C. A.
There was a good attendance of members at the meeting of the Women's Christian Association on Thursday. The treasurer's report showed: Receipts, $1,065 31; expenditure, $816 58; balance on hand, $248 83. In the Home for Incurables there are now fourteen inmates. One death had occurred during the month. At the Home for Aged People, several deaths had taken place, reducing the number of inmates to 50. The relief committee have been unremitting in their labors during the past winter. They will now be able to relax their efforts somewhat, as there is less suffering and want among the poor during the summer. During last month $58 38 was expended in relief. The following donations are very gratefully acknowledged: For Home for Incurables—From Mrs. Cooper, canned fruit; Mr. West, flowers; Miss Greenway, flowers; Mr. Campbell, bananas; Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Davies, eggs; Mrs. Elliott, cake; Miss McKee, fruit; Mrs. B. A. Mitchell, rice; a friend, cake; Children's League, Memorial Church, cake and candy.

The Baconians.

Thirteenth Annual Banquet of This Club.

At the Grigg House—A Feast of Reason and a Flow of Oratory.

The thirteenth annual banquet of the Baconian Club was held at the Grigg House, as usual, last night, to mark the close of the season, which has been a very successful one. Mr. O. J. Stevenson, B.A., the president, who removed to St. Thomas before his term of office expired, returned for the evening, and graced the head of the table. Mr. D. E. Galbraith, B.A., of St. Thomas, late of the Collegiate Institute, was also welcomed by his colleagues. Mr. J. A. Cottam, secretary, was the vice-chairman. The menu was very elaborate, comprising every delicacy in season, from frogs' legs to ice cream, and the members were invited to its discussion by the words of Macbeth:

"Lay on, Macduff;
And damned be he who first cries,
Hold, enough!"

The toast list was as follows:
"The Queen".....Chorus
"Loyal to the royal Inghis"
And loyal to the land as this to thee."
—Tennyson.

"Baconian Club".....O. J. Stevenson
"Gentle in personage,
Conduct, and in the stage,
Noble by heritage,
Generous and free."
—Anon.

"The Jubilee".....John Stevenson
"O strong hearts of the north,
Let flame your loyalty forth!"
—Charles G. D. Roberts.

"Lord Bacon".....Jared Vining
"The name of Bacon will be named with reference to the latest ages, and to the remotest ends of the civilized world."
—Macaulay.

"Canada".....Rev. Geo. Fowler
"Our country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong."
—Stephen Decatur.

"The Unspeakable Turk".....R. A. Little
"Rid in the world, and clear the stage,
Full of all guile and all villainy."
—St. Paul.

"The Press".....M. W. Rossie
"A chief's amang ye takin' notes,
An' faith he'll print it."
—Burns.

"Law".....D. E. Galbraith
"A most amusing sport,
You thought it, I'll be bound,
To saddle up a three-pound dog,
With two and twenty pound."
—Burns.

"Divinity".....G. N. Weekes
"O ye who are sae guid yourself,
Sae pious and sae holy,
Ye've fought to do but mark and tell
Your neighbors' faults and follies!"
—Burns.

"Medicine".....Rev. M. P. Talling
"Happy a suburban physician!
His village are less observed, and his assassinations less known."
—Gill Blas.

"Education".....C. G. Jarvis
"Custom is most perfect when it begineth in young years; this we call education, which is in effect but an early custom."
—Bacon.

"The Wheel".....Robert Robertson
"Let go thy hold when a great wheel runs over a hill, lest it break thy neck with following it."
—King Lear.

"The Ladies".....U. A. Buchner
"As for the women, though we scout and flout 'em,
We shall live with, but cannot live
without 'em."
—Dryden.

"Gaining All the Time."
Your sample of Mellin's Food received, I thank you for. It has already done my baby good. Our little girl is 7 months old and has always been a very cross child. She never seemed to be satisfied with her nurse; seldom would she be held, and she grew poor and thin. I had such a quantity of milk. I did not want to wean her, so I have taken Mellin's Food myself, and such a change! She is gaining all the time and sleeps more and is better every day. I shall continue using Mellin's Food as long as it agrees with her.

Mrs. S. D. Loomis,
8 Howard St. - Holyoke, Mass.

The mother who finds it almost impossible to appease the hunger of her baby may be sure that her baby is not receiving sufficient nourishment, although the child may be taking large quantities of food. A child is nourished, not by the quantity of food taken, but by the amount digested.

Mellin's Food, as directed, contains enough nourishment in a digestible form to satisfy the baby's hunger and to promote a natural and healthy growth.

Write to us in postal will do and we will send you a free sample of Mellin's Food.

guson, W. C. Barron and P. Mackenzie replied to the collective toast. The evening was enlivened with songs by Messrs. Robertson, Ferguson, Spencer, Messrs. Robertson, Cottam, Jarvis, Ferguson and Little, and an instrumental solo by Mr. Barron. The latter kindly played the accompaniment.

The club unanimously passed a resolution, congratulating Mr. J. A. Cottam, secretary, for his elevation to the bench as junior judge of Brant.

The banquet ranked among the most enjoyable ever held.

WHITTAKER-BUTTREY.

A Former London Boy Leads a Bride to the Altar.

The Brooklyn Citizen of Sunday, April 25, has the following: "Miss Emma E. Buttrety was united in marriage last Wednesday evening to Mr. Henry Whittaker. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Dawson in the Annals Street Presbyterian Church. Three hundred invitations had been issued for the ceremony and reception which followed, and the church was well filled. The bridesmaid, Miss Wm. M. Whittaker, of Toronto, Ont., a brother of the groom, and Mr. R. M. T. Gershinske, of London, were the bridesmaids. The church leaning on the arm of her grandfather, Mr. Wm. Chadwick, preceded by Miss Ella Madigan, the maid of honor, and Miss Bertha Geller, a little flower girl. The bride was attired in white satin on train, and wore a tulle veil, caught up with a diamond sunburst, the gift of the groom. The maid of honor wore a pink silk gown, trimmed with points of white roses, and the little flower girl a basket of white pinks and Easter lilies. The groom and best man, Mr. Harry Stephens, of Greenville, N. J., met the bride party at the altar. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 765 Grand street, and the bride and groom received the congratulations of their many friends. After the wedding supper dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker have taken up their residence at No. 329 Humboldt street, and will be at home to their friends on May 7.

BUTCHERED OR BURNED?

We read with horror of the cruelty and butcheries of Gen. Weyler in the fair Isle of Cuba, but little realize the ravages of that more diabolical King of Grave Fillers, Kidney Disease, here in our midst.

People of high and low degree do daily from Kidney Trouble. We incur it ourselves. We encourage it. We do everything but cure it.

Yet there is a cure, pleasant as a May morning. It is DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. People not alone we, but everyone who has tried them. One hundred per cent of c
