The exact position as to the armistice negotiations is not yet Consisting of a commodicus, well-finished brick veneer house and a frame cottage on Oxford street. Under the power of sale contained in two registered mortgages made by Albert Thomas Corp. and Margaret Corp. his wife, to the vendor, there will be sold by public auction, by Mr. J. W. Jones, auctioneer, at his auction rooms, No. 242 Dundas street, on at his auction The following freehold property, namely: That part of jot No. 5, on the south side of Oxford street, in registered plan No. 22, for the city of London, which may be described as commencing at the northwest angle of the said lot, then easterly, parallel with Oxford street, 56 feet 3 inches; then southerly, at right angles to Oxford street, 156 feet 6 inches, to the rear of said lot: then westerly, parallel with Oxford street, 56 feet 3 inches; then northerly 156 feet 6 inches, to the place of beginning. On this property are the houses known as Nos. 183 and 187 Oxford street. The brick house is unusually commodious, and is a very desirable residence. At the rear is a substantial, two-story frame building used by Mr. Corp as a paint shop and storehouse. The cottage is built on a stone foundation. Both houses are in thorough repair. Terms: Ten per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale and sufficient to make up one-third within one month thereafter. The balance may be paid in cash, or remain on mortgage.
