Three Government Defeats Result From Members Attending & Garden Party.

London, June 30.-The Queen has invited all the colonial troops to a luncheon parade at Windsor Castle next Friday.

The garden party given at Buckingthree defeats to the government in the House of Commons, So many members of Parliament attended the garder party that the House of Commons was stripped. Business dragged along, and a divison on a minor bill dealing with a church building in the Isle of Man resulted in the defeat of the government by a vote of 52 to 65. Thereupon the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, made some remarks upon the difficulty of doing business during the jubilee celebration, and moved to adjourn.

Dr. Tanner, Anti-Parnellite member Mid-Cork, retorted by urging Mr. Balfour to devote more time to business and less to pleasure. Mr. Balfour's motion was rejected by a vote

The correspondent was struck by the undisguised feeling shown by the occupants of the legions of craft of all shapes and sizes threading the lines of the floating citadels. He returned to Portsmouth and started on another vessel. He found the crowds always the same. They frantically cheered their own ironclads and cruisers. LADIES' AWFUL EXPERIENCE.

The occupants of the democrat wagon on the Wharncliffe road, referred to by Mr. Janes, were Mr. Courtland sas hurricane—of awful and irresist-ible violence, sweeping all before it elm tree en route, and then reached of con. 8, and Mrs. Rundall, of North street. Before they could realize it, the storm broke upon them, and they oods seemed to give it a new twist, were lifted off the road, and thrown into the ditch. Mrs. Rundall says the cyclone had a rotary motion, and she ntuitively grasped a sack of which was whirling about in the air with her. The wagon flew right over ner, and was shattered to pieces, the marvel, neither Mrs. Rundall nor Mr. Birtwhistle sustained any injury beond the shock, but Mrs. Shaver unortunately suffered a broken rib. Dr. utledge and others were soon in attendance. The horse was unhurt.

AT KILWORTH. Mr. Anson Kilbourn, of Kilworth, says the storm struck that vicinity between 3 and 4 in the afternoon, and was first noticed about the town line river for a few moments, and and crashed through the

The roof of Mr. Dawson's barn, southeast of Mr. Smith's, was also carried away, and the fences leveled on every side. Happily, so far as known, no person was injured in this neighborhood, and the cattle and horses seem to have also escaped.

THE FINANCIAL LOSSES. It is impossible to properly estimate the loss, but one is much more apt to underestimate than overestimate, because of the general destruction. What adds to the seriousness of it is that there is no insurance covering such damage. The following rough esimate will furnish some idea of the
