The second practice of the London Rugby Football Club will be held this evening at 5 o'clock at Tecumseh Park. Rooms have been secured for the players and every convenience will be offered so that it will be advantageous to all who intend playing to turn out and get some good practice. Last week it was difficult to get a great number of players out on account of the fair, but at least 25 men should chase the pigskin for an hour or so this evening. Mr. Gordon Fleck, of Toronto, and who for three years has played on the Varsity team, will arrive in this city today. He will coach the London team in the new rules during the week, so that the men will understand the game thoroughly, and will make no mistakes of rules when they are called upon to meet teams in the championship series. Mr. Fleck will be the guest of Mr. Chas. R. Hunt, of "Merriville," South London. The executive also meets tonight. The appointment of a representative to the O. R. F. U. will be the chief matter taken up. This position requires the qualities of a diplomat, together with a full knowledge of the game, and a thoroughly capable man will be chosen.
