LOCAL MARKET.

Wednesday, Aug. 26. Although there was twenty loads of hay offered there was a good demand and prices were firm at $10 50 to $12 per ton.

Straw sold at $6 50 per ton. A load of new oats sold at $1 30 per cwt, and a load of old went at $1 50 per cwt. Straw sold at $6 50 per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Trade at the markets the past week was fairly brisk, and the quantity of produce offered was considerably over that of the preceding week. The only lines that there were any material change in prices were potatoes and poultry, which were a little lower. For oats and hay, prices were higher.

Grains-That there is going to be a lot of poor oats, one has only to examine some of the loads that are brought to the market to see the big difference in the quality. Sales are made at $1 25 to $1 30 per cwt for choice and $1 10 to $1 12 per cwt for inferior. Old oats are very scarce at $1 50 per cwt. The millers are offering 80c per bushel for wheat. Hay and Straw-There is a brisk demand for hay as there is hardly nough offered. Sales are made at $11 and $11 50 per ton. Straw is in good demand at $6 50 per ton.

Butter and Eggs-Butter is quite plentiful and as there has been a lot shipped in from the small towns and villages, trade as a consequence is on the slow side. Prices are steady at 22c to 23c for crocks, and 24c for pound rolls in wholesale lots. Eggs are steady at last week's quotations, at 18c per dozen for crates and basket lots. Some lots, it is said, were sold Potatoes-The market is not as strong as a week ago. Sales are made $4.80; Ontario beet, in barrels or bags, at 70c to 80c per bushel or $1 10 per $4 80.

Fruits-The supply of apples is considerably smaller than in the preylous week. Prices are steady at 30c to 50c per bushel. Pears are coming in more freely. The demand is fair, at 85c to $1 per bushel. Peaches are selling at 35c to $1 per 11-quart The latter price for Crawasket. Plums are plentiful and slow fords. at 35c to 50c per basket. Grapes are now offered at 35c for the 8-pound basket Poultry-The dealers quote lower prices, but say they are higher than this time last year. Old fowl sell at 7c per pound alive, or 9c dressed. Spring chickens, 10c per pound alive, or 12c dressed. Turkeys, 11c per pound alive, or 121/2c dressed. Ducks, to 8c alive, or 9c to 10c dressed. Dressed Hogs-The demand is good, at Bell Telephone

Live Hogs-Prices for Monday's shipment will be $6 25 per cwt for selects and $4 25 for fat sows.

Birkett, Ottawa Nominee, Stirs as a hopeless battle. ative Camp.

Ottawa, Aug. 25.-Mr. Thos. Burkett, 75% chosen as candidates for the coming 1194 federal election by the local Conserv. Dr. Chabot was unanimous, there being mother. no other French name put before the convention. Three men were placed in nomination for the English candidature, Messrs. Thos. Birkett, Fred 631/2 Cook, newspaper correspondent, and 1494 P. D. Ross, proprietor of the Ottawa Evening Journal. Mr. Birkett was chosen on the first ballot, receiving 451 votes. Mr. Ross was next, with 150, and Mr. Cook third, with 140. Before the vote was taken a direct challenge was given to the convention in a most unpleasant manner by Mr. Birkett, and was resented by many of the delegates. Mr. Birkett declared that he had recently left town for the first time in his life, and before he had left it had been agreed that he and Dr. Chabot were to receive the unanimous nomination of the convention. As soon as he left the city, Mr. Birkett declared, Messrs. Ross and Cook had gone stealthily behind his back and had endeavored to break this understanding by asking the delegates to vote in the convention for them, and against himself (Birkett). Mr. Birkett intimated that this was most unfair, and gave the convention to understand that he would not tolerate the nomination of any other man. He declared that he had been a lifelong worker for the Conservative party and was entitled to the nomination on this occasion, as he had always given liberally of his time, his energy and his money for the Conservative cause. He declared that he was more en-

EAST KENT TORIES IN LOVELY ROW

Pessimism and Bad Feeling Marked the Annual Convention at Dresden.

Toronto, Aug. 25-The Globe's Chat ham correspondent sends the following picture of the spirit in which the Tories of East Kent are going into the general election campaign: Probably never in the history of Liberalism in Western Ontario was the strength of the party led by Sir Wil-191/4 frid Laurier so significantly illustrated as today in Dresden, where the Conservative delegates from the various subdivisions of East Kent assembled to select a candidate to oppose D. A. Gordon, M. P., the present member. Instead of selecting a candidate, after a meeting characterized by discord, pessimism, heated debate and numerous reflections, the delegates departed with nothing done and no one chosen, to assemble at a later date, when, if the appearance of affairs for the Conservatives in East Kent is more propitious, they may name a candidate to oppose Mr. Gor- Bosch, one of the stepdaughters of stirred to its centre today by the Lee De Forest Gets High Tower Privdon in what was characterized by Consequently the delegates listened with open ears for Mr. Sharpe's first words. They were: "We are doubtful whether the time is ripe for selecting a candidate to oppose ple. Mr. D. A. Gordon.
