Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Great are the Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Great are the Ottawa Senators: After fifteen long, lean years of honest endeavor, their champion hopes were at last realized here this afternoon when they defeated Hamilton Tigers 8 to 3 in the deciding game of the Interprovincial rugby union and copped the Big Four honors.

Crowded into the big stand and in motors around the playing field was the largest crowd to see a rugby game in Ottawa for many, many years. There is a difference of opinion as to how many people were in attendance, but it is safe to say that the number ranged around ten thousand.

The enthusiasm which has been pent up in the breasts of Ottawa fans for so many seasons burst like a raging flood as the timers' whistles piped the end of the battle, and in no time at all the big field was a swirling mass of humanity as thousands crowded down to pay tribute to Dave McCann's fighting Senators. Tubman, Miller, Connell, Lynch and in fact every member of the team was lifted shoulder high and borne to their dressing-rooms as the band vainly endeavored to make the strains of "See the Conquering Hero Comes," audible above the clamour of the acclaiming crowd.

A Brilllant Victory. Ottawa, Nov. 14.-Great are the Otaudible above the clamour of the acclaiming crowd.

A Brilliant Victory.
For in every respect it was a brilliant victory. In winning the garland the Senators played like real champions, and in the vanquished Tigers they found man who also played like champions. There was not a weak link in either chain, and but for a break in the opening minute of play when Ottawa secured a touchdown, it might have been a hairline decision that settled the issue.

The local seniors will open their season with a game here Friday night against Toronto Canoe Club, the new senior entry.

Toronto Canoe Club will, it is expected, have a strong club this year, though little is known of the personnel of the team. However, with fewer senior teams and with all the senior talent now available in the Queen City, the Paddlers should be pace-setters.

Marsden's seniors have been going great guns in their workouts, and by Friday night should be in shape to go 60 minutes at top speed. It is expected that both clubs will sub freely for this game, and this will give local fans an opportunity of sizing up the several combinations that Marsden has to choose from.

However, the break came to Ottawa because they made it. on the local grounds. After scoring a point aplece in the opening frame, the teams tore at each other in the middle of the field, neither side being able to get away until Timning, star half for Dundas, completed a twenty-yard run to Sarnia's ten-yard line, paying the way for the only touchdown of the game.

According to the opinion of the large crowd of fans who witnessed the game, the best team won but the Sarnia players knew their stuff. The ground was heavy, and the Sarnia back division had difficulty in getting away.

Nelson McPherdam, fiying wing and star punter for the Tunnel City squad, was particularly handicapped, but he got his punts across by a hair's breadth each time. Ewener, at end, played a brilliant game along with Manore and Reives.

However, local officials have taken the stand that if the Grads are not grouped with St. Thomas and another center, which would cut down travelling expenses, they will either ask for a bye or drop out of the L. Tinning is Hero.

On the winners' side, Tinning was the hero of the afternoon. He was the fastest man on the field, and, had the ground been in shape for him, he would no doubt have got away with the ball on more than one occasion. It was Tinning who turned the tables on the Sarnia team just at the time the fans were beginning to look forward to an overtime game. Quarterback Webb called for an end run near the Dundas 45-yard line. Tinning covered over 20 yards of the field beform McPhedran stopped him. The Sarnia players stacked up against the Dundas players stacked up against the Dundas were conceded, and Alkerton called out of the line to head a plunge through the Sarnia left win.

Alkerton was thrown back, but Lennard carried the ball well up to the goal-line. The Sarnia team was stacking up low against the onslaught of the Dundas players. Alkerton saw this, and on his second line plunge he jumped clear over the hunched team for the clubdown. Lennard converted it. Dundas players. Were a pleasure to watch, They wo were a pleasure to watch. They worked smoothly and consistently, and got down under the hoop in repeated saines. They are a bit off on shoothnyet, but that is their least worry at they have lots of time to get their sharpshooting eyes in shape. For a first performance under fire, the Grads show great ability that should give London nonors in the coming season.
