BOYLE MEMORIAL MOTHERS

PLAN HOCKEY BANQUET

The Boyle Memorial Mothers' Club is planning to banquet the boys' and girls' hockey teams of the school on Jan. 18, arrangements having been made at last night's meeting of the club held in the school. Mrs. Goldby, the president, was in the chair. The feature of the evening was a round-table conference led by Principal J. J. Ferguson of the school. Mr. Ferguson explained the working of the different grades to the mothers, and asked for greater co-operation with the teachers. The club is carrying on a large amount of relief work in the district. A vocal solo by Mrs. J. Ferguson completed the program.

MAJ. A. G. N. BRADSHAW AT WORTLEY ROAD CLUB

Addresses Mothers on Workings of Juvenile Court—Fine Program Given.

Major A. G. N. Bradshaw of the Juvenile Court was the speaker at the meeting of the Wortley Road Mothers' Club last night. Major Bradshaw explained that it was the object of the court to help children rather than to punish the city bylaws were made for their benefit and protection as well as for the benefit of others. When a fine was imposed or a sentence given, he said, they were usually suspended and the child made not liable unless he came before the court for another offence. Should a fine have to be placed, the payments were spread over a given length of time, so that the child might earn the money to pay for it. Major A. G. N. Bradshaw, the president, was in the chair.

A very fine program was provided by the children of Mr. Willis' room, including the following numbers: Short sketch, "The Christmas Sign," in which those taking part were: Lillian Milner, Aileen Russell, Hazel Cole, Margaret Bruce, Evelyn Milner, and a minstrel sketch called "Four Niggers Go Shopping," by five boys, John Crosser, Douglas Scott, Tom Gregory, Earl Ingram, and a vocal solo by John Crosser. Evelyn Milner, a minstrel sketch called "Four Niggers Go Shopping," by five boys, John Crosser, Douglas Scott, Tom Gregory, Earl Ingram, and a vocal solo by John Crosser. The members of the Hale Street Mothers' Club entertained the girls of the school basketball team and the boys of the football team last night. Other guests were the children who assisted in the collection of papers recently.

Principal M. Garrett was present and appealed to the mothers for their co-operation in the school. It was just such an interest as they displayed in their banquet to the school teams, that encouraged the children to keep clean in their sports. Super of course was an important feature of the program, but it was preceded by many interesting numbers given by the children themselves as follows: Circle song, by the girls of the Mothers' Club; recitation, Jack Coleman; recitation, Bernice; dance, vocal solo, Dorothy Edwards; dance, Isabel Wells; violin solo, Evelyn Henderson; recitation, Dorcas; piano solo, Ruth Beamish; recitation, Jean Duncan; piano duet, Laura and Vivian; recitation, vocal solo, Tommy Hoskins; recitation, Grand Denley; piano solo, Marjorie Watson; recitation, Florence Lewis. The program was arranged by the children under the direction of Mrs. C. Hoskin.

EALING CLUB TO HOLD VALENTINE CONCERT

Mrs. W. A. Tanner Addresses Mothers on "Club Spirit" at Last Night's Meeting.

A largely-attended and enthusiastic meeting of Ealing Mothers' Club was held last evening with Mrs. W. A. Tanner, president of the Union Club as special speaker. Mrs. Tanner spoke on "Club Spirit," and in commencing her address, stated that judging from the size of her audience, she did not think it was necessary to speak on this subject. She told the mothers that the most essential point in club spirit was loyalty to the officers, combined with friendliness to speak on this subject.
