FAMOUS BRIGAND

Alfonso Carbone Released Through Royal Pardon After forty-two Years in Prison.

MILAN, April 21.-At Civita Vec chia, a few days ago the famous brigand, Alfonso Carbone, formerly chief of a numerous band of malefactors, was released from orison, having received the Royal pardon. Carbone is 64 years of age, and has spent fortytwo years in prison. He has always enjoyed good health, and is now quite vigorous and robust. He was origin ally condemned to death, but by royal decree the capital sentence was commuted into hard labor for life.

Carbone may be regarded as the last survivor of Neapolitan brigandage. In 1860 he slew Pasquale Gamboni, AN ILD MALCHKORNE AND COLONIST will themselves prove to be quite un-founded. The publishers of newspapers and farm journals, while desirous of protecting readers cannot reasonably be expected to investigate the statements of advertisers. The individual reader must do this for himand may do so very readily.

Thus, when he is told that a certain machine was awarded a first prize at any Canadian Fair or Exhibition, write the manager of such Fair and ask him to corroborate the statement. He won't do so, for the reason that there has never been a test of cream separators made at any Fair or Exhibition in Canada. When he reads an indorsement of any machine purporting to be written by anyone officially connected with the Government Dairy Department, he should correspond with the head of the department, when he will find that the testimonial was written by a discredited and discharged employee, or by one who had severed his connection with the department before the testimonial was When he is told that a particular kind of separator will skim cleaner and faster, run easier and last longer, is easier to clean and cheaper than the New Improved De Laval, he should invite the agent making such statement to bring along his machine and prove even a single one of these statements. A De Laval machine will gladly be furnished for the purpose of comparison, and entirely without obligation. The result will demonstrate the point of this artisement, and also the fact that no clair advertisement, and also the fact that no claim is machine the New improved De Laval Separator which the machine itself will not make good. Try it. Write for Gatalog No. 500
