EGGS FOR HATCHING!

Brown Leghorns a Specialty.
THE UNDERSIGNED HAS RECENTLY IMPORTED some Choice Pens of these Celebrated Fowls. One pen were First Prize Winners at Detroit, Grand and Good. The others are from the hands of Wallace Barrow, Esq., Philadelphia, one of the most extensive breeders in America. The Brown Leghorns are non-setters, and the most prolific egg-producers known, the pullets laying at four months and upwards, 260 eggs per annum. For beauty of plumage and form they have no equal. They are hardy and easily raised, living on about one half that which other breeds require. They are the most profitable fowls kept.
Eggs securely packed and warranted. Price—$2.50 per Dozen; two Dozen, $4. Eggs from stock superior to mine readily sell for $4 per Dozen in yards in the U. S.

FARMER'S INSURANCE

THE
AGRICULTURAL MUTUAL ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, . . . LONDON, ONTARIO.
Capital, . . . $284,096.67.

The pioneer of cheap Farm Insurance in Canada. The first company that ever attempted successfully to place insurance on ordinary farm property at the rate of twenty-five cents for $100 per annum.

This old reliable Company continues to take the lead of all others in the amount of business done; it has now, 1st of Nov., 1875, nearly 60 000 members, chiefly of the Agricultural class, and is continually increasing.

The affairs of the Company are conducted on the purely mutual plan, by a Board of Directors, who are all themselves Farmers.

Since the formation of the Company over half a million of dollars have been distributed in the payment of losses.

Detached Private residences are taken at liberal rates.

For Insurance apply to any of the agents, or address the Manager, London, Ontario.
