

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special Notes.

Rev. H. E. Waring, St. John, preaches to-day. He writes:—"Hoping for a helpful day." May it be such. Rev. Sylvanus E. Frohock, Central Falls, R. I., preaches next Sunday; and Rev. F. M. Holt on the 25th, which is Convention Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Jenner occupied our pulpit two Sundays. He gave able sermons, delighting all. He also took charge of the Prayer Meetings and conducted the whole Sunday School as one class. Bro. Jenner has been classed among the strong men, as a preacher. Perhaps we might give him a call to the Pastorate. What say the Committee? What does the Church say?

Rev. F. M. Holt, wife and infant, arrived in this city on Wednesday last. They intend spending two or three weeks in the Province, and will be guests at the home of Mr. Knowles, Rockingham, a former member of the 2nd Baptist Church, Lynn, Mass.

Bro. Holt, though arriving a couple of hours previous to Prayer Meeting time, attended at our Vestry and conducted the meeting on that evening, to the delight of all present. Our Bro. has many warm friends in the North Church. He will preach for us August 25th. We wish for him and his genial partner a very pleasant time during their vacation visit.

The Business meeting held Tuesday evening was largely attended. Reports were presented from Finance Committee, Convention Fund, Organ and Mortgage Funds. Our offering to Convention Fund was about $25.00 less than last year.

Maritime Baptist Convention takes place August 24th, Moncton, N. B. We are entitled to send five delegates, and these should represent various branches of our church work. This appointment will be made at the Wednesday evening meeting.
