"Toronto Pulmonarium,"

Twenty years' experience in this.

The following letter speaks for itself.

DEAR DR. NASH.—When I called at the "Toronto Pulmonarium" I had been suffering with Catarrh for a year, and with Asthma for six weeks. I took your Inhalant Treatment and Constitutional Remedies for only four days, and now I am well, the pain in my head is all gone, I sleep well and breathe all right, in fact I never felt better in my life. I have great pleasure in thanking you for what you have done for me.

Yours truly,

CHARLES CLARKE.

FOR THE KIDNEYS, LIVER & URINARY ORGANS THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.

There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The most medical authorities of the day declare that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver.
To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured. This is where WARNER'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver, and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women, for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

For Diabetes ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE.

Mr. Wm. Boyd Hill, Cobourg, writes: "Having used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for 60 years, I have much pleasure in testifying to its efficacy in relieving pains in the back and shoulders. I have also used it in cases of croup in children, and have found it to be all that you claim it to be."

Words of the Wise.

CHRIST crucified, risen, ascended, is the centre and circumference of our Christian theology.

HUMILITY is, of all graces, the chiefest when it does not know itself to be a grace at all.—St. Bernard.

IN God's salvation we can do but little, but there is a great deal to be received.—F.
W. Robertson.

LEARN to cultivate a wise reliance, based not on what you hope, but on what you perform.—J. A. Garfield.

THE only sound and healthy description of assisting is that which teaches independence and self-exertion.—Gladstone.

WE should do everything we can for others, if only to dissipate the thought of what they omit to do for us.—Madame Swetchine.

A NARROW-MINDED man can never possess real and true generosity; he can never go beyond mere benevolence.—Talleyrand.

THE crowning fortune of a man is to be born to some pursuit which finds him in employment and happiness—whether it be to make baskets, or broadswords, or canals, or statues, or songs.—Emerson

LIFE is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindnesses and small obligations, given habitually, are what win and preserve the heart, and secure comfort.—Sir H. Davy.

GUNPOWDER is the emblem of political revenge, for it biteth first, and barketh afterwards; the bullet being at the mark before the report is heard, so that it maketh a noise, not by the way of warning, but of triumph.— Fuller.

HABIT, if wisely and skillfully formed, becomes truly a second nature, as the common saying is; but unskillfully and unmethodically directed, it will be as it were, the ape of nature, which imitates nothing to the life, but only clumsily and awkwardly.—Bacon.

When a sudden sorrow Comes like cloud and night, Wait for God's to-morrow,
All will then be bright.

Only wait and trust Him Just a little while,
After evening tear-drops Shall come the morning smile.

—F. R. Havergal.

GOD never accepts a good inclination instead of a good action, where that action may be done; nay, so much the contrary, that if a good inclination be not seconded by a good action, the want of that action is made so much the more criminal and inexcusable.—South.

HUMAN happiness has no perfect security but freedom; freedom none but virtue; virtue none but knowledge; and neither freedom, virtue nor knowledge has any vigour or immortal hope, except in the principles of the Christian faith, and in the sanctions of the Christian religion.—Josiah Quincy.

GROWTH in grace manifests itself by simplicity, that is, a greater naturalness of character. There will be more usefulness, and less noise; more tenderness of conscience, and less scrupulosity; there will be more peace, more humility; when the full corn is in the ear, it bends down because it is full.— Cecil.

THE time may be delayed, the manner may be unexpected, but sooner or later, to some form or other, the answer is sure come. Not a tear of sacred sorrow, not a breath of holy desire, poured out in prayer to God, will ever be lost; but in God's own time and way it will be wafted back again in clouds of mercy, and fall in showers of blessing on you and those for whom you pray.
—Prof. W. S. Tyler.

A BONANZA OF 35

of health is to be found in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, the most valuable Prescription, to the merits of which remedy for female weakness and all directed thousands testify.

THE superiority of Mother Graves' World-Famous is shown by its good effects on the CORNUS cause intolerable pain. Holloway's Cure removes the trouble.

ALEXIS CYR, of Grant Isle, Arcootook Co., N.S., writes: "Having used Northrop and Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and derived great benefit therefrom, I take the liberty of asking you for quotation also whether you would be willing to give me an agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known."

JAMES SNOW, Gunning Cove, N.S., writes: "I was completely prostrated with the asthma, but using of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, I procured relief, and it done me so much good that I got another before it was used, I was well. My son, a child a bad cold by the use of half a bottle, and a good wild-fire, and makes cures wherever it is used."
