LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.—Especially timely and valuable papers characterize the contents of recent issues of Littell's Living Age. Selecting the richest from what is already the crème de la crème of recent English periodical literature, we would call particular attention to "Kossuth and the Hungarian War of Liberation," by Sidney J. Low; "A Visit to the Tennysons in 1839," by Bartle Teeling; "Mr. Gladstone," by Richard Holt Hutton; "The Queen and Her Permanent Minister," by Reginald B. Brett; "A Note on Walt Whitman," by Edmund Gosse; "A Russian View of the American Press," by Professor I. I. Yonjoul. The papers on Kossuth, Tennyson, and Gladstone are full of interest.

We would again call the attention of our readers to the generous offer recently made by the publishers, viz., to send the 13 numbers of the magazine, forming the first quarterly volume of the new series (January to March, 1894) free to any one remitting six dollars in payment for the nine months, April to December inclusive, 1894. This offer will be kept open through June. The subscription price is $8 a year. Specimen copies, 15 cents each. Littell & Co., Boston, Mass., are the publishers.
