

W. B. S. of Christian Endeavor.

"Remember how thy Creator in the days of thy youth"—Eecl. xii. 1.

EDITED BY MISS M. SCOTT.

 Motto.—"Occupy till I come."

WE REGRET to observe that the weekly prayer meetings are not so well attended as formerly. There is, we believe, a good reason for this; still, we would like to see larger meetings. Remember, all are welcome.

Our membership is increasing, but it is still far short of what it should be. We are anxious to see all the young people of the Church enrolled, either as active or associate members, as we have work for all.

We celebrated the tenth anniversary of Christian Endeavor quietly. At the evening service, on Sunday, February 1st, our Pastor kindly preached an anniversary sermon. Monday we observed as Christian Endeavor day, and the collection, which amounted to $7.50, has been handed over to the Juvenile Missionary Society, to be devoted to French Evangelization.

The anniversary meetings, in Portland, Me., were very successful. Over eighteen hundred delegates registered, and fully three thousand were in attendance at several of the sessions. Montreal was ably represented by Dr. Wells.

We have much for which to praise God and give thanks in the history of the past ten years. But what may not be accomplished in the future for Christ's cause, if every member is faithful to his pledge—"Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, I promise Him that I will strive to do whatever He would like to have me do?" It is well to remember that this is not the C. E. pledge, but the pledge of every Christian.

A LITTLE WHILE.

What is this that he saith?

'It is but a little while.'

And trouble, and pain, and death,
 Shall vanish before His smile.

'A little while,' and the load
 Shall drop at the pilgrim's feet,
 Where the steep and thorny road
 Doth merge in the golden street.

But what is this that He saith?
 'A little while,' and the day
 Of the servant that laboreth
 Shall be done forever and aye.

Oh, the truth that is yet untold!

Oh, the songs that are yet unsung!

Oh, the sufferings manifold,

And the sorrows that have no tongue!

Oh, the helpless hands held out,
 And the wayward feet that stray
 In the desolate paths of doubt,
 Ah! the sinner's downward way.

For a silence soon will fall

On the lips that burn for speech;

And the needy and poor that call

Will forever be out of reach.

For the work that ye must do,

Before the coming of death,

There remaineth, oh faithful few,

'But a little while,' He saith.
