CAUTION.

BEING credibly informed that in this city, and elsewhere, agents of Protestant Book Publishers are going about amongst Catholics, endeavoring to procure subscribers for works, (in numbers) by representing themselves as Agents for the Sale of our publications, we caution Catholics against them.

To prevent imposition for the future, Agents employed by us, will have a written certificate. Parties desirous of subscribing for our works, will be careful to see that our names are on the cover.

We have seen Histories of Ireland circulated by these worthies, which are full of lies. We do not object to their selling their Books the best way they can, but we caution them against using our names for the purpose.

"This is equal in interest to Warren's Diary of a late Physician."—London Times.

"A volume of most affecting narratives, from the pen of an English priest, in some of which is displayed in a remarkable manner the power of religion over some of the worst and most abandoned characters; and in which, also, is set forth the wretched end to which vice often conducts its victims. The pious efforts of the Missionary with the infidel, the miser, the drunkard, the burglar, and other unhappy creatures, are related with simplicity and pathos."—Catholic Herald.

CANTON HOUSE.

FAMILY TEA, COFFEE AND SUGAR WAREHOUSE,
 No. 109, Notre Dame Street.

SAMUEL COCHRAN invites the attention of Consumers to his Stock of TEAS and COFFEES, which have been selected with the greatest care, and on such terms as to allow him to offer them at unusually low prices.

The MACHINERY on the Premises, worked by a Four Horse Power Steam Engine, for Roasting and Grinding Coffee, is on the most approved plan, the Coffee being closely confined in polished metal spheres, which are constantly revolving and oscillating in heated air chambers, is prevented imbibing taint from Smoke, danger of partial carbonisation of the Bean and loss of Aroma, so important to Connoisseurs, which is further ensured by attention to Grinding at the shortest time prior to Sale. To this elaborate process SAMUEL COCHRAN owes the high reputation his Coffee has obtained through a large portion of the Province.

CRYSTALLISED SUGAR (much admired for Coffee), REFINED SUGAR in small loaves, and WEST INDIA SUGARS, of the best quality, always on hand.

A few of the choicest selections of TEAS may be had at the CANTON HOUSE, Native Gatty Packages, unrivaled in flavor and perfume, at moderate terms.
 Families residing distant from Montreal will have their orders scrupulously attended to, and forwarded with immediate despatch.

The experience of the last twelve months has amply proved to the public the utility of a Depot for such a purpose—enabling them to select from a large and well assorted Stock, the quantity suited to their convenience—combining the advantage of a Wholesale Store, with that of an ordinary Grocery.

SAMUEL COCHRAN, Proprietor.
