

The Canadian side will give to the Italian scholarship holders:

- a) - a monthly sum of 900 Canadian dollars to scholarship holders and 1,200 Canadian dollars to fellowship holders;
- b) - exemption from university fees;
- c) - health and accident insurance, except pre-existing illnesses and dental prosthesis;
- d) - return travel costs for each scholarship;
- e) - a settlement allowance of 300 Canadian dollars.

EXCHANGE OF EXHIBITS

With respect to the exchange of exhibitions, the sending side will pay:

- a) - the costs of assembly (the packing of the works to be shown), as well as transport to the first place of exhibition in the receiving country;
- b) - insurance costs on the basis of the nail-to-nail formula from the moment the works to be shown leave their usual site until their return;
- c) - return travel costs for an expert who will accompany the exhibition.

The receiving side will pay:

- a) - the living costs of the above-mentioned expert in conformity with the dispositions of the present program with respect to the exchange of persons;
- b) - other costs, such as the reservation of galleries proposed, the hanging and installation and dismantling of the exhibition, transport of the exhibition within the receiving country, printing of the catalogue, publicity, etc.